Glad Tidings: Circleville To Get Downtown Theater

Movie House To Open Here Mid-November

Colored lights on the marquee of the old Cliftona Theater building will be flashing again in about eight weeks!

Public announcement was made today of the plans to re-open the movie house although negotiations have been under way for some time. Remodeling of the theater has already begun and a tentative opening date is set for mid-November.

The Cliftona has been leased to Carl Leigh of Kenton. His grandson, Carl F. Leigh, currently of Findlay, will manage the theater.

Contracts were signed Aug. 22, in the law offices of Robert H. Huffer between Leigh and Harry Clifton Jr., owner of the building, but official announcement was delayed at Leigh's request.

LEIGH, affiliated with the movie industry for many years, plans to move to the Circleville area "as soon as housing can be arranged." He and his wife have two daughters.

Circleville Mayor Richard Gerhardt was instrumental in convincing Leigh to negotiate with Clifton for the re-opening of the theater here. Leigh noted that it was Mayor Gerhardt who made the contacts for the theater deal. He said that his acquaintance with the mayor stemmed from Gerhardt's days as a student at Ohio Northern University at Ada.

At the outset, Leigh said, the theater will operate seven nights per week with matinees and "kiddie shows" on Saturdays and Sundays. During the summer months, he tentatively plans to operate on weekends only.

Initially, Leigh said, 500 seats will be installed in the auditorium and the name will be changed from The Cliftona to The Fox, which was the name of his first theater.

Leigh said he has been convinced of the need for a theater in Circleville and if the venture proves successful, an overall remodeling program is planned in two years with the latest in cinematography equipment.

Negotiations are also under way.

Rain, Fog Dampen Wide Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain, drizzle and fog dampened wide areas of the country today and erupted into occasional downpours in parts of the East.

Heavy rains which swamped portions of Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania through Tuesday ranged northward during the night to soak much of New York and adjacent areas. Flash flood warnings were in effect for northern Virginia communities late Tuesday after three to five inches of rain fell in a few hours.

One to two inches hit portions of New York in the predawn hours in storms frequently accompanied by strong gusty winds. Hail pelted scattered sections of the Eastern Seaboard.

Elsewhere, thunderstorms sweeping out of the Gulf of Mexico swiped at southern Texas and Florida, thundershowers rumbled over the southern Rockies and rain spilled across the Pacific Northwest.

Clear skies covered a large interior portion of the country from the Rockies to the Mississippi Valley.

Temperatures remained on the cool side through the Midwest, sliding into the 40s and 50s throughout the region. Madison, Wis., registered 43 before daybreak.

IN ITS HEYDAY — This photo of the Cliftona Theater was taken in its "heyday." Today, due to a lack of repairs, it doesn't look quite the same, but work is progressing and within a couple of months it will be back in operation under the new marquee title of The Fox.

Former Area Man Killed In Vietnam

Joseph Schmidt, 20, was killed Sept. 7 in Vietnam war fighting northwest of Saigon.

Schmidt, who would have been 21 years of age Sept. 18, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmidt, Newark. His father was former superintendent of Amanda - Clearcreek Schools and Pickaway Twp. His mother taught Latin and English at Amanda - Clearcreek High School.

In the Army's 25th Division in Reconnaissance Group, Schmidt went to Vietnam July 4, 1968. His unit was assigned to "search and destroy" assignments. No details of his death are available.

Schmidt attended St. Joseph Catholic School and Circleville High School. He graduated from Newark High School in 1965 and attended John Carroll University in Cleveland.

Heart Transplant Legality Eyed In South Africa

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — The use of an African woman's heart in South Africa's most recent transplant operation was authorized by the government, not by a member of her family, the medical superintendent at Groote Schuur Hospital says.

Dr. Jacobus Burger said that the identity of the woman, whose heart was transplanted into a white ex-policeman, was not known to the hospital and that consent for a post-mortem following her death Saturday came from the Health Department inspector of anatomy in Cape Town.

This, Burger said, gave him authority for the removal of tissue—the heart—from the body. The operation was performed by the pioneer transplant team headed by Dr. Christiaan Barnard.

Reagan Slates Ohio Campaign

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan will campaign in Rockford, Ill., and Cincinnati, and Middletown, Ohio, for Republican candidates Sept. 18-19.

Reagan will fly to Rockford on Sept. 18 and fly the next day to Middletown, Ohio, to address an airport rally and a luncheon for Rep. Donald Luken. From there, Reagan goes to Cincinnati to address a $1,000 a plate dinner on behalf of the Richard Nixon-Spiro Agnew ticket.

French Plane, 95 Aboard Crashes In Mediterranean

Fighting Rages At Tay Ninh, Near Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — Fighting raged northwest of Saigon today as the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese drove deep into the city of Tay Ninh, and American forces killed 95 enemy troops in repelling a night attack on a unit of the 25th Infantry Division.

Farther northwest along the Cambodian border, North Vietnamese gunners shelled a dozen allied camps, but casualties and damage were reported light. U.S. intelligence officers forecast no immediate attack on Saigon.

Moving under cover of a heavy mortar attack, enemy infantrymen charged the 25th Division camp 14 miles southeast of Tay Ninh. They were driven off after nearly three hours by a massive barrage from armored personnel carriers, helicopter gunships and artillery. Six Americans were reported killed and 22 wounded.

Meanwhile, South Vietnamese paratroopers and militiamen skirmished with hundreds of enemy soldiers who invaded Tay Ninh, a key provincial capital 45 miles northwest of Saigon.

AP correspondent John T. Wheeler reported from the U.S. combat center in Tay Ninh that a Communist defector told interrogators there were three regiments—about 7,000—in and around the city.

Wheeler reported some fire-fights during the afternoon, but the big battle for the city of 200,000 evidently had not yet started. Enemy troops frequently pulled back when South Vietnamese paratroopers moved in.

Wheeler said some North Vietnamese troops coming into the city asked directions from local residents, particularly to the big church which is the headquarters of the Cao Dai religious sect.

Some enemy troops entered the cathedral, where hundreds of local people had taken refuge earlier, and a thin string of government militiamen took up positions around the big building.

The Viet Cong and North Vietnamese began pushing into the city about 1:30 a.m. under cover of a 200-round mortar barrage. Militia units put up only light resistance or none at all.

Immediately after the first attacks, South Vietnamese airborne troops were dispatched and began reaching Tay Ninh in mid-morning, some by helicopter and some by convoy up Route 22, the main road connecting Tay Ninh and Saigon. The Viet Cong mined the road in unsuccessful efforts to keep reinforcements from reaching the city.

Tallmadge Police Chief Gets Help

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Tallmadge Police Chief Michael J. Dremak got some help today as the police negotiating committee relaxed its "sick" call and agreed to return one man to duty on each shift.

Dremak had worked alone since midnight Monday when his eight-man force called in "sick" as the result of a pay dispute.

A special meeting of City Council is scheduled for tonight in an effort to resolve the dispute.

move was not part of a general withdrawal. "One of the Marine divisions is on its way home," Humphrey said Tuesday night in response to the question about Johnson's statement to the American Legion convention in New Orleans that no one could foretell when withdrawals might take place. And he added: "I was just telling my staff they were a bunch of doubting Thomases."

Nixon Stumps New York, Gets Rockefeller Blessing

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon—cheered by a friendly reception in Nelson Rockefeller's home county—is working to tighten his alliance with the New York Republicans who lead the party's liberal wing.

The Republican presidential candidate meets today with the New York governor and with Mayor John V. Lindsay and Sen. Jacob K. Javits to announce plans for the GOP campaign in the crucial state—holder of the nation's biggest bloc of presidential electors. Both Javits and Lindsay had backed Rockefeller's bid for the Republican nomination.

Later today he leaves for North Carolina.

Tuesday night, Rockefeller stood at Nixon's side and gave him his personal blessings in front of a roaring, enthusiastic crowd in a White Plains, N.Y., auditorium, not far from the Rockefeller estate in Tarrytown.

Recalling his campaign for the GOP nomination in which he promised "new leadership," Rockefeller said: "For three months this summer I stumped the country from coast to coast demanding new leadership. Well tonight I am here to welcome, on behalf of all of us in Westchester County, a man who's going to provide that new leadership."

SPINACH . . . It split the city board of education right down the middle Tuesday night . . . "Agh, its terrible stuff," said Bud Brehmer, chairman of the board . . . LBJ Again Warns Reds In Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, urging Moscow for the second time in two weeks not to "unleash the dogs of war," says the only way to peace in Europe is through no-holds-barred negotiations.

While urging the Soviet Union to accept earlier proposals for high-level talks on arms and troop reductions in Europe, Johnson warned that the United States never will tolerate the use or threat of force in areas of "common responsibility like Berlin."

"The use of force generates fears and passions whose consequences no man can predict or control," the chief executive told a session of the B'nai B'rith national convention Tuesday night.

"As I said the other day in San Antonio, 'Let no one unleash the dogs of war.' Europe has suffered enough in this century," he added.

Johnson's San Antonio speech Aug. 30 was the strongest he has aimed at Moscow in months and seemed to represent part of a carefully orchestrated U.S. response to the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia 10 days earlier.

The public part of that response has included cancellation of some features of the cultural exchange program with Russia, orders that work proceed on missile development and defense to improve any U.S. negotiating position, and some Johnson comments at a news conference that the United States remains "very concerned" over Soviet actions in Eastern Europe.

Pilot Radioed Fire Aboard Big Jetliner

NICE, France (AP) — An Air France Caravelle jet liner crashed into the Mediterranean Sea today killing all 95 persons aboard, including Gen. Rene Cogeny, who commanded French troops in North Vietnam at the time Dien Bien Phu fell, the airline said.

The plane, just recently put into service, was on a flight from Ajaccio, Corsica, to Nice, on the Riviera. Shortly before the crash, the pilot messaged: "Fire aboard!"

The wreckage of the plane was located 12 miles off the Riviera coast.

The pilot of the plane, which was approaching Nice for a landing at its seaside airport, shouted one last message into his radio: "There is still fire aboard. We..." and his voice broke off.

Several residents of the Riviera reported seeing a huge black column of smoke rising from the sea off Cap d'Antibes. Others reported a ball of fire shortly before the twin-jet plane disappeared. Fisherman Marius Guis said he heard an explosion.

A search by sea and air was begun in rainy weather. One plane signalled that there appeared to be lifeboats around the wreckage, but this was not confirmed. The first three bodies brought to the mainland by helicopters were badly burned.

Is It Well With The Child?

(AN EDITORIAL)

A lack of communication is the author of many arguments, misunderstandings and other unfortunate and needless controversies.

This, we feel, is the underlying cause of the hassle at the Children's Home.

The Child Welfare Board, a group of dedicated lay people, initiated action for the construction of a new Children's Home. County Commissioners in August, after many months of delaying a decision, decided to build a new home.

Caseworkers of the CWB, the technically trained personnel in social work dealing specifically with children, opposed the new home claiming there was no need for it. Board members, as well as commissioners, were informed of the caseworkers' feelings in June, but efforts continued to build a new $200,000 home until a meeting Monday. At the Monday session commissioners and Child Welfare Board members put a halt to plans for building a new home and decided to close the present home effective Sept. 30, claiming they hadn't been aware of the staff's feelings until they "read it in the paper."

Regardless of their reasoning, commissioners, as well as the CWB, are to be commended for their action although it may have cost them the price of a "crow dinner." However, that same "dinner" would have been more costly had the new home been completed to house only a half dozen children or less.

The utilization of federal funds since 1963 has expanded the Child Welfare facilities from a one-woman, one-room office to five full-time staff members operating from a five-room office facility.

The Children's Home, the CWB's institutional facility, has been the public's image of the agency. Actually, it has provided only a fraction of the services to the children since the agency has been expanded. Caseworkers now try to individualize care according to the child's and his family's need.

The more than 300 children receiving services of the CWB are now getting more personalized care, training and counselling than ever before.

If the channels of communication are opened among Child Welfare Board members, the staff and commissioners, Pickaway County can develop one of the best "children's services" agencies in the country.

The only question to be considered "Is it well with the child?"

Syracuse Again Hit By Violence

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Arsonists touched off three fires in Syracuse Tuesday night and early today. Three more arrests were made as the city underwent its third night of disturbances in predominantly Negro sections.

Fire officials blamed arsonists for three fires, two in empty houses and a third at a grocery store.

Three youths were arrested from a band of some 40 persons who clashed with three Syracuse University students in a brief scuffle on the city's East Side. The arrested youths were aged 15 and 16. Officers said 40 youngsters were dispersed. There were no serious injuries in the scuffle.

Despite the rain, police kept up heavy patrols in the southern section of the city. Officers used tear gas Sunday to disperse a crowd of rowdy youths and groups of young Negroes threw rocks and bottles Monday night in a seven-hour series of incidents.

The youths arrested Tuesday evening were charged with criminal mischief and unlawful assembly.

Death Penalty Shift Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If the next legislature decides to retain the death penalty in Ohio, the responsibility for making life and death decisions may shift from juries to trial judges.

A legislative committee studying revision of Ohio criminal statutes was urged Tuesday to recommend elimination of the jury's mercy prerogative and substitute a presentence hearing by the trial judge.

The legislature is expected to be asked again at its next session to abolish capital punishment. Similar efforts have failed in the past.

The proposed death penalty change would require trial judges to conduct hearings within 10 days after first-degree murder convictions are returned.

HHH Tries To Make Hay With Viet Shuffle

HOUSTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey, answering a questioner's assertion President Johnson had contradicted his prediction of early U.S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam, waved a newspaper at a Texas audience and said, "It verifies what I said."

But the article reporting departure of a Marine regiment also said the unit had been on temporary duty, had been replaced by another and that "the

Within minutes, a member of his Secret Service detail produced the newspaper, Tuesday's Houston Post, and Humphrey read the headline: "Marine Regiment Heads Home From Viet War, Withdrawal Is First For U.S."

"I think it verifies what I said I hoped would happen," he said. The incident took place at the start of a question period as the vice president kicked off his Texas campaign, portraying himself as "the best alternative" to Richard M. Nixon and George C. Wallace and appealing for party unity despite snubs from the state's top leaders.

Neither Democratic Gov. John Connally, reported busy at the state capitol in Austin with paper work, nor Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., was on hand to greet the vice president when he landed here after a vice-presidential stop in Los Angeles, snubbed by Mayor Samuel F. Yorty and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

Humphrey told an audience of several hundred at the rally that "The greatest story of all" in this campaign will be the unity of the Texas Democratic Party. House Speaker Ben Barnes and state chairman Will Davis of the top party hierarchy met

Nixon said he has bigger crowds, but none as enthusiastic. So eager were the people to see the candidate that a good portion of the crowd waited outside after the rally for a final glimpse of him driving away.

Suburbanites, he said, form a large part of this group. He said they don't engage in demonstrations except to "demonstrate by setting an example of citizenship."

And he added: "I was just telling my staff they were a bunch of doubting Thomases."

"I have 20 staff members standing around here," the vice president said, asking that one fetch the newspaper.

Within minutes, a member of his Secret Service detail produced the newspaper, Tuesday's Houston Post, and Humphrey read the headline: "Marine Regiment Heads Home From Viet War, Withdrawal Is First for U.S."

"I think it verifies what I said I hoped would happen," he said. The incident took place at the start of a question period as the vice president kicked off his Texas campaign, portraying himself as "the best alternative" to Richard M. Nixon and George C. Wallace and appealing for party unity despite snubs from the state's top leaders.

Neither Democratic Gov. John Connally, reported busy at the state capital in Austin with paper work, nor Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., was on hand to greet the vice president when he landed here after a visit to Los Angeles, snubbed by Mayor Samuel F. Yorty and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

Humphrey told an audience of several hundred at the rally that "The greatest story of all" in this campaign will be the unity of the Texas Democratic party. House Speaker Ben Barnes and state chairman Will Davis of the top party hierarchy met PICCA CLASSES — Mrs. Anita Hayne, Home-Health Nurse for Pickaway County Community Action (PICCA), explains proper bathing methods to Mrs. Mary Ann Sowers during health and sewing classes which began Tuesday in the Lowery Lane Listening Post. Mrs. Betty Wharton, Home-Health Aide, is sewing instructor. Similar classes will begin soon in other neighborhood listening posts operated by PICCA.

Dubcek Again Pressured To Check Liberal Course

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovak Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek met again today with Moscow's man in Prague amid reports of further Russian complaints that Dubcek's regime is not doing enough to check "counterrevolutionaries."

A small crowd that had waited for hours cheered Dubcek as he entered the meeting with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov, who came to Czechoslovakia Friday.

Premier Oldrich Cernik said Tuesday night he informed Soviet leaders in Moscow that "certain effective measures will be realized in our country which will have a favorable influence on the further development."

Apparently he referred to the reimposition of press censorship and a ban on formation of new political organizations. These measures await the certain approval of the National Assembly Friday.

The country's reformist liberal leadership has stressed, however, that the measures will be temporary and reassured the population there will be no departure from what one newspaper termed "Dubcek socialism with a human face."

In Communist Romania, whose independent-minded leaders have backed Czechoslovakia, British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart ended a three-day visit today. He and Romanian President Nicolae Ceausescu urged an East-West detente for the sake of world peace.

Czechoslovak government leaders assured their people Tuesday night that due process of law will be observed despite the Soviet occupation and appealed for the return of refugees from abroad.

Fund Freeze Hurts Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A new federal freeze in highway funds could cut $30 million to $40 million a month from Ohio's road building program.

But the state highway officials are hopeful that the freeze is only temporary and will not have too great an effect on Ohio's program.

The state was informed that $200 million was being trimmed from the nationwide road budget as part of an economy move. Projects not already approved will not be given approval until further notice.

However, Highway Director P. E. Masheter indicated the key word in the order about further notice in December could mean it would be lifted then at a time when projects scheduled are comparatively few.

Paper Panties On The Way From Britain

NEW YORK (AP) — So-called paper panties are going to step onto the American market soon—courtesy of British ingenuity.

The panties, actually made of a nonwoven viscose rayon, were revealed by a model Tuesday in a showing for the American lingerie industry.

The disposable garments have been a fashion rage in Britain since 1967, and the firm that makes them is working on bras of the same material. They also make men's shorts.

The ladies' panties are marketed individually in packages about the size of cigarette packs and will be available in machine dispensers. They have been selling abroad for 15 cents a pair.

There's one hitch: If you're over size 8, forget it. The pants can't stand the strain.

ACLU Challenges Youngstown Law

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union says it will challenge in court a city law that forbids anyone over six-years-old from walking barefoot in the downtown area.

The ordinance was passed 6-1 last week and its sponsor, Councilman Jack C. Hunter, said it was a health measure.

Dennis Haines, a member of the Youngstown ACLU chapter, said Tuesday he would file suit, possibly on Friday, in Mahoning County Common Pleas Court.

Drum Corps Elects Business Manager

John Davis, Columbus, was elected business manager of the Davis Demon Drum Corps at its meeting Monday.

Davis, who founded the corps in 1960 and has directed it since then, replaces Jean Justus, Route 3, as business manager.

The new business manager is a professor in the classical studies division of Ohio State University.

U.S. Statement Shatters Hopes Of Pueblo Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hopes for quick release of the USS Pueblo, feeding on widespread rumors for a week, have been shattered by U.S. statements that North Korea is seeking more than just American apologies.

"It is my understanding," said Secretary of State Dean Rusk Tuesday, "they have asked for a good many things including commitments about further action that would involve the high seas in the Sea of Japan."

Rusk commented on leaving a closed session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. At about the same time the State Department was releasing a carefully worded statement on the U.S. position.

Both the Rusk comments and the statement came after a week of rumors here and in Asia that North Korea might release the captured U.S. intelligence ship and its 82 crewmen in connection with North Korea's celebration of its 20th anniversary as a Communist state.

North Korea has demanded three actions from the United States in return for the ship and its crew, seized Jan. 23.

These have been an admission the vessel violated North Korea's 12-mile territorial limit, an apology and a promise there would be no violations in the future.

Rusk told the House committee that there is no independent evidence whatsoever that the Pueblo violated its sailing orders which directed it to remain outside North Korea's territorial claims.

North Korea has claimed the Pueblo was within seven miles of its coastline when seized by a gunboat.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford, also testifying behind closed doors in Capitol Hill, told newsmen he had nothing to indicate that the Pueblo release is imminent.

Negotiations between the United States and North Korea have been going on sporadically at Panmunjom.

A State Department spokesman said, "We have an obligation to keep the negotiations private" if they are to prove successful.

B&O Trains Adequate, PUCO Told

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Existing Baltimore & Ohio passenger train service between Toledo and Cincinnati adequately serves the public, an inspector supervisor for the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio said Tuesday.

Testifying at a PUCO hearing, inspector Robert J. Federn Jr. said he rode trains 53 and 54 on eight separate occasions during November 1967 and last March.

"It appears," he said, "that the two cars provided on each of these trains are sufficient to provide seating facilities for all passengers, that cars are reasonably clean and in good condition and that eating facilities are adequate and food is reasonably priced."

The PUCO ordered an investigation last fall to determine whether the railroad's discontinuance of trains 57 and 58 resulted in undue hardship to the traveling public.

The two trains make stops at Deshler, Lima, Wapakoneta, Sidney, Piquette, Troy, Dayton, Middletown, Hamilton and Winton Place.

Modern Police Use Television

OLEAN, N.Y. (AP) — Police in this southwestern New York community will spend their evenings watching television—but it will be in the line of duty.

The City Council Tuesday signed a contract with All-Band Cablevision Co. to install six television cameras along the city's North Union Street business district so that one policeman seated at a desk in headquarters can keep an eye on the five-block-long area.

A spokesman for the company said the system, which cost the city $6,500 per year, probably was the first of its kind put to this use.

House Group OKs Suspension Of Equal Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Commerce Committee approved today a suspension of equal-time provisions of communications law that could clear the way for televised debates between presidential candidates this year.

The vote was 16 to 14. The committee made only one minor change in the proposal, already passed by the Senate, to suspend the equal-time provision for candidates for president and vice president in the 1968 campaigns.

A similar suspension in 1960 cleared the way for televised debates between Richard M. Nixon and John F. Kennedy.

the vice president here. He drew applause answering a University of Houston student, Rex Erickson, 23, who asked what supporters of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy should do now. "I think I offer you the best alternative of what you have available," Humphrey said.

In California earlier, he said he remains "confident" of winning McCarthy's backing. "It is inconceivable to me that we wouldn't be together when the choice is Mr. Wallace, Mr. Nixon and myself," he said in a television interview.

After more meetings and interviews here, Humphrey heads for New Orleans to speak to the American Legion convention before hopping north to Michigan for appearances in Flint and Saginaw.

In a speech prepared for the Legion convention, Humphrey called for "plain talk, honest talk and responsible talk" on the crime issue, terrorism, burning, sniping and mugging, "the advance guard of anarchy."

Earlier in the day, at the TRW Systems, Inc., aerospace plant at Redondo Beach, Calif., Humphrey was asked for the first time about the Navy ship Pueblo, held since January by the North Koreans.

He said he opposes "military action" to free it but that, although he would prefer having it released now, "it would be a nice way to start off a new term under my presidency in 1969."

Chicago Area Schools Close After Fight

SUMMIT, Ill. (AP) — All schools remained closed in this suburb southwest of Chicago today following sporadic incidents of racial trouble triggered by a fight between Negro and white high school pupils.

Forty-one persons had been arrested since noon Tuesday.

Mayor George J. Jancenko imposed a 1 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew for youths 17 and under after the first fights Tuesday involving 500 pupils at Argo Community High School. He also ordered an 11 p.m. to dawn curfew for adults.

Thirty youths were arrested and nine suffered minor injuries in the fighting at the high school.

State and Cook County sheriff's police aided local authorities in putting down minor disturbances that included rock-throwing at patrol cars.

About 30 of those arrested, police said, were charged with curfew violations.

A group of 75 whites arrived in 20 cars at the city limits Tuesday night. They attempted a march, carrying "white power" signs, on the predominantly Negro section.

Five persons were arrested for refusing to disperse at a police order and two others were charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Classes at the high school were canceled Tuesday by the order of Supt. J. W. Lewis, who also ordered that the high school and five elementary schools be closed today.

The disturbance Tuesday erupted after a student assembly at which white and Negro leaders spoke concerning Negro students' demands.

Lewis said statements by a white pupil, which accused Negro pupils of harassing white pupils, apparently caused the outbreak.

The Negroes, who comprise about 10 percent of the school's 2,000 enrollment, are demanding an Afro-American history course, Negro cheerleaders and a Negro homecoming queen every other year.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

There will be little if any rainfall with temperatures averaging below normal Thursday through Monday. Highs will average near 70 north to the mid 70s south. Lows will near 50. Cooler through Saturday and then warmer around first of next week.

Research Project, Adults Subjects of School Board

monthly travel expenses for Don Metzler.

Circleville Board of Education turned its attention to older citizens and a research project during a lengthy meeting Tuesday night.

A contract for a research project was signed with Battelle Memorial Institute. The project, run in conjunction with 70 other school districts in Ohio, will be aimed at finding the personnel, public relations, administrative and educational needs of the local school.

The research project, to last three years, will cost the local school district $7,500.

Turning its attention to senior citizens the board approved a policy of providing free passes to people over 65-years to attend school programs such as ball games and class plays.

ADULT education programs, on a tuition basis, continued to have board approval. The board authorized a course in shorthand if there are enough people interested.

The adult education program presently consists of a typing course, a 25-student program for training practical nurses and a program being conducted for members of the sheriff's department.

In other business before the board Mary Parks was made head teacher at Corwin St. School. Fred Goeglein was appointed adviser of Key Club.

Contracts were issued to 14 elementary and 10 secondary substitute teachers. The contracts were offered in keeping with a new state law. Substitute teachers did not have to be under contract until this year.

Four new substitute teachers were approved by the board for regular service not to exceed 100 days during the year. These teachers were Kathryn Bower and Sophia Smith, for Mound St. School, and Hazel Steele and Marguerite Weiler for High St. School.

Teachers aides were approved for use at Atwater, Mound St. High St. and Nicholas Drive Schools. The 15 aides, to be distributed among the four schools as needed, will be paid for under the federal Title I project.

MRS. Frances Elsea and Mrs. Ruth Rihl were approved for employment as teachers aides.

A YMCA program for grade school boys was recommended by Harold Hewitt. The program, to be called "Gra-Y," was approved by the board for use in all the city elementary schools.

A driver's education program, to be conducted after school, was approved by members of the board. Don Poling has been hired as instructor for the program. Students will be charged a $2 lab fee for the course.

Hiring of a night custodian for the high school was considered and approved. Salary for the first year has been set at $3,885.

Transfer of five deaf children to the Columbus School for the Deaf was authorized by the board.

Fritz Jacobs, superintendent of the city schools, announced that there are 43 seniors and 60 juniors enrolled in the distributive education program at Circleville High School. This is the largest program for a school the size of Circleville's in the state, he announced.

SICK leave policy for noncertificated personnel wishing to attend funerals was approved. The leave is not to exceed one full day.

In final business before the board it was decided to pay

Holdups Coming Back

Two or three bandits enter a modern bank and, knowing that television cameras are taking their picture, demand money.

They are aware alarms can be sounded by a bank employee who scarcely makes a move. They know that radio will spread the alarm in minutes and roadblocks will be thrown up. They know all about tear gas.

There are other pitfalls which can trap a bank bandit.

It is amazing that in spite of modern ingenuity the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports that bank robbery was up 54 percent in 1967 over the rate for 1966.

Bank robbery is a crime enforcement officials once thought was a dying art. In the days of no fences, trails for roads and lack of communications, bank robbery appealed to outlaws on the frontier. But now and then disaster struck the gangs.

The Jesse James outfit ran into gunfire in Minnesota when citizens showed they were not afraid to fight. The Dalton gang was all but decimated in Coffeyville, Kans., when an aroused citizenry opened fire.

Some famous deputy U.S. marshals showed remarkable tenacity in tracking down a gang. Still there were robberies. Then came the automobile. It did not take criminals long to learn it could be useful in robbing banks.

By the time the law was alerted, the bandits were far away and usually driving a car other than the one used in robbing the bank.

Kidnaping probably hit the bank robbery business its hardest blow. The nation was aroused. The FBI was relentless in its pursuit. In nabbing kidnapers, agents landed old bank robbers.

Bank robbery did not die entirely, but it was no longer an every day occurrence. Now and then somebody would get ambitious and pull a job. But few criminals wanted to point a pistol at a cashier and get a shot of tear gas in return.

World War II virtually ended bank robbery in the once wide open spaces where it formerly flourished. It may never again reach the heights it did in the 1920s.

Branches in the suburbs now seem to be the favorite targets of bank bandits, and account for the increase in the number of holdups. There are fewer employees and customers than in downtown banks, and it is easier to plan a getaway. But few of these go unsolved.

THEY'VE updated the World War II story of the GI who sought to escape a close order drill in the 120-degree midsummer heat by claiming "a severe pain in the abdomen." "Listen, soldier," barked the medic, "only officers have abdomens. Sergeants have stomachs. And you, you gold-bricker, YOU have a slight bellyache. Get out!"

Some weeks after a Mrs. Supper received a $3200 check in compensation for the loss of her best jewelry, she informed her insurance company that the missing gems had turned up—hidden in a mass of miscellaneous items in one of her overstuffed drawers.

"I didn't think it was honorable to keep both my jewelry and your check," she wrote her insurance agent, "so I trust you'll be pleased to know that I contributed the $3200 to the Red Cross."

ALIBI OF THE WEEK: Dropping into the office unexpectedly a trusting wife found her husband with his lovely blonde secretary firmly established on his lap. Without hesitation, the resourceful husband explained, "You see how terrible business is, Minnie? I've had to start studying to be a ventriloquist!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What is the safe way to remove hanging hairs in the nose?

It will be noticed that hairs grow at the junction of the skin and the mucous membrane lining of the nose. These hairs are nature's mechanism to protect against foreign bodies and dust entering into the nose. These hairs, like hair elsewhere, grow and sometimes become excessively long and unsightly. Some people allow them to grow because they are afraid of endangering themselves if they cut or pluck them. In some instances this is true.

At the base of all hairs germs can invade the tiny opening and cause an infection or an abscess. For this reason plucking is not suggested because the skin edge can be broken and thus exposed to the invasion by bacteria.

Hairs can be cut to about half their length with complete safety. There are now specially made dull ended scissors which do not injure the skin or the lining of the nose.

Generally, it is safer if someone else does the cutting. Attempts to do so alone by looking in the mirror confuse even the most dextrous people, and skin injuries result.

Before cutting the hair, the nose should be cleaned with soap and water and a mild solution of alcohol. The scissors, too, should be cleaned with alcohol.

When there is any suspicion that the skin may have been injured, the doctor usually prescribes a mild antibiotic ointment as an extra prevention against infection.

Is it true that a sore throat can sometimes cause symptoms that resemble appendicitis?

It is said that the correct diagnosis of appendicitis is one of the most difficult ones that confronts a physician. The few symptoms and signs of pain in the right lower portion of the abdomen, tenderness or pressure and perhaps nausea and vomiting, may be associated with many other disorders of the intestinal tract.

It is true that a sore throat may confuse the diagnosis in the following way. Glands in the neck are commonly associated with such infections. Occasionally, tiny glands that surround the small intestines may become enlarged during an infection of the tonsils, the pharynx or even the sinuses. This general glandular enlargement may cause some irritation within the abdomen and intestinal wall and produce symptoms that can be confused with appendicitis.

Another condition which is rarely considered to be associated with the appendix is a form of pneumonia. With an infection of the lungs can come an irritation of the diaphragm which may then send radiating pains to all parts of the abdomen and add confusion to a proper diagnosis.

The judgment of a physician is too often taken for granted, especially when he arrives at a conclusion in a remarkably rapid way. This judgment is based on many years of discriminating decisions and the brilliance of the diagnosis is never mere chance.

Abernathy Is Arrested

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, several other civil rights leaders and a top union official were arrested today when they joined striking garbage workers in a sit-down to block a city garbage truck.

Abernathy is president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the civil rights organization which was headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., until his assassination last April 4, in Memphis, Tenn.—where he was leading a similar campaign in support of striking Negro garbage workers.

Police said 87 persons were arrested as the strike entered its eighth day amid emergency garbage pickup procedures and 12-hour police shifts for close security.

Arrested with Abernathy was the Rev. A. D. King, brother of the slain civil rights leader. Also arrested were the Rev. Andrew J. Young, SCLC executive vice president; the Rev. Joseph Lowery, SCLC board chairman; and Hosea L. Williams, political director of SCLC.

Also jailed was Morton Shapiro, regional representative of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Union. He has been negotiating with the city on behalf of the strikers after their local and district officers termed the strike illegal.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Just as frost, foliage and football announce the fall, so also do the forecasts of business economists.

Fall is that time of year, they all know, when everyone from the ad manager to the president wants a glimpse of the future. The company's status is reviewed, plans are made, money is budgeted.

The season may be early this year. Frost already has cooled the summer in some states, football is encroaching on baseball everywhere and the matters of taxes and elections have forced economists to cut short their vacations.

Ordinarily the forecasts come later in September. Last year Arthur Okun, then a member but now chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, helped inaugurate the season on Sept. 22. He was, incidentally, quite accurate in forecasting:

"The main danger for the year ahead is that of excessive speed—not of stalling. The single most important uncertainty about the economic outlook is currently in the lap of Congress as it considers the President's tax proposals."

A likely date for the first round of official forecasts this year is the week of Sept. 22, when the National Association of Business Economists holds its annual meeting here.

But even prior to this date, the political and tax debates have revealed the thinking of economists, some of whose views are repeated here because of their wide following among different groups.

The consensus, quite clearly, is for a slackening of the advance until about midyear 1969 and then an upturn. Differences of opinion exist, however, regarding the depth of the downturn. Some even foresee a recession early in 1969.

Because of his role as adviser to President Johnson, Okun already has expressed his view clearly. In an interview with U.S. News and World Report, he stated:

"It will be an unprecedented victory if we come through with a cooling off that checks inflation without actually retreating on output, jobs and economic activity. Nobody can be confident it's going to work that way, but I'm hopeful."

Okun feels one of the real dangers for 1969 is that the economy will come out of the slowdown too rapidly, and that the stage might be set for another burst of inflation that could lead to even another downturn and so on.

Bill Freund, vice president of the New York Stock Exchange, maintains a tradition of early forecasts begun when he was chief economist for Prudential Insurance Co., in a speech prepared for delivery this evening to the Kentucky State Bankers Association at Louisville, Freund states:

"There will be some slowing down in the rate of economic expansion in the months ahead. But reducing the speed of an airplane from, say, 600 miles an hour to a cruising speed of 200 miles is entirely different from predicting a crash."

As Freund sees it, "no decline in real economic activity lies ahead." What is in the future, he feels, is "a real resurgence in the economy during the second half of 1969." The pickup, he forecasts, will become evident in the second quarter.

Pierre Rinfret, an internationally known economic consultant to business—and during the presidential campaign a Richard M. Nixon adviser—agrees with Freund in the broad outlines of the economy during the coming months.

Rinfret told his clients within the past two weeks to expect, "no recession, sluggish performance through the first quarter of 1969 followed by dynamic expansion."

The computer calculations of the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania also include a slowdown for the next few months but a speeding up of economic growth after midyear.

Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, the nation's biggest broker, is telling its customers that economic growth during the remainder of 1968 will be slow. It comments that a ceasefire in Vietnam could lead to a mild 1969 recession.

"Continued fighting," it states, "could avert a downturn in economic activity, but overall growth would still be slow until midyear. Strong growth should then resume."

Argus Research, which sells its analyses to the mutual funds, insurance companies, brokers and other professional investors, has a tendency to be bearish. Although "recession" is a foul word in the stock market, Argus has stated that the economy could be vulnerable to a "mini or maxi recession."

Minimum Wage

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Six hundred ministers and lay delegates to the Ohio Synod of the Lutheran Church in America voted Monday that pastors should be paid a minimum wage of $6,000 a year.

In addition, delegates asked automobile, housing and utilities allowances and pension and death benefits for pastors.

The vote came during the four-day synod at Wittenberg University here. Sessions began Sunday.

The synod also backed the church's urban crisis appeal which asks $6.5 million for social work. Ohio Lutherans are being asked to find $180,000 in 1968, and $210,000 in 1969.

According To Boyle

By JOY STILLEV (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — I go to bed every night, shaking, and every morning I wake up, shaking.

It isn't really a case of nerves. It's a case of having a bed equipped with an automatic vibrating unit. You just flip a switch, set the timer, and it's rockabye, baby.

The thing not only puts me to sleep—it wakes me up, too. Just set the alarm, and instead of bells or buzzers at the appointed time, the mattress starts moving, announcing in its mechanical manner that I'd better get moving too.

It all started when my husband and I took a trip. All along the way we saw billboards advertising motels with beds equipped with vibrating mattresses. It sounded fascinating, but somehow the establishments always turned up about noon—and since we never got started in the morning until 10, this seemed a bit early to stop.

During 10 days of travel, these slumber wonders eluded us nightly, but on the final day of the trip we decided we could not return to our mundane existence without experiencing the wonder of shaking slumber.

Accordingly, we kept going that night until we finally found a motel with a magic mattress. At that point we were only about 75 miles from our house, but unknown adventure beckoned far more enticingly than the known comforts of home.

It turned out that the highly advertised vibrating bed required one quarter for each half-hour of its activity. Nevertheless, we spent most of the night feeding it coins so that it would perform its gyrations.

We peered and poked and prodded, but were never able to learn what made the thing go. I personally favored the theory that there was a full-time masseur hidden somewhere beneath the bed, pocketing the quarters and swishing the springs.

We didn't get much sleep, and departed the next morning quite shaken, literally and figuratively, by our discovery.

In fact, so entranced was my husband by the electric marvel that I decided it would make a good gift for the man who gives everything, as I keep telling him.

While he was shaving I managed to find the name of the manufacturer on the bedside controls and I was all set to do my Christmas shopping early.

I ordered the device by mail and made elaborate arrangements with a neighbor to receive and hide what I assumed would be a package of bed-size proportions. It turned out to be a tiny box containing a motor, a maze of connecting wires and a clock.

Nevertheless, when he opened it my husband was all shook up by the unexpected present, and we both have been ever since.

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — This three weeks hence. When you arrive, a burly guard checks your name and allows you to drive up the road that leads to the museum, which is hidden from the highway.

Visitors park their cars near the kennel that houses two vicious watchdogs and proceed into a courtyard with sculptured fountain. Then they are admitted to the sculpture gallery where the tour begins.

A bright young man, one of the museum's eight employees, gives a chatty introduction to the tour. He answers some of the most-asked questions:

The museum is on an 80-acre site that once was Mr. Getty's home. He has not lived there since 1951, when he moved his residence to England—"so there isn't much trace of him here."

After a considerable lapse, Mr. Getty has begun sending over works of art once more, and there are plans to expand the museum, allowing greater attendance. The museum was built adjacent to his residence after his departure—"so he has never seen it, except in photographs."

The residence remains empty. "For the past 17 years, Mr. Getty has said that he was coming back next month; so far he hasn't."

The tour is both informative and informal. The prize of the sculpture collection is the Lansdowne Hercules, which once graced the Emperor Hadrian's villa at Tivoli. The guide points out the classical features of the face and observes that many visitors see a resemblance to Elvis Presley.

The paintings are displayed in a small theater of the Getty home which was once used for chamber concerts. The room is alive with the brilliant colors of Rubens, Tintoretto, Ruysdael, Titian and Veronese. There is also a Gainsborough, "Portrait of Sir James Christie."

Holdups Coming Back

Two or three bandits enter a modern bank and, knowing that television cameras are taking their picture, demand money.

They are aware alarms can be sounded by a bank employee who scarcely makes a move. They know that radio will spread the alarm in minutes and roadblocks will be thrown up. They know all about tear gas.

There are other pitfalls which can trap a bank bandit.

It is amazing that in spite of modern ingenuity the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports that bank robbery was up 54 percent in 1967 over the rate for 1966.

Bank robbery is a crime enforcement officials once thought was a dying art. In the days of no fences, trails for roads and lack of communications, bank robbery appealed to outlaws on the frontier. But now and then disaster struck the gangs.

The Jesse James outfit ran into gunfire in Minnesota when citizens showed they were not afraid to fight. The Dalton gang was all but decimated in Coffeyville, Kans., when an aroused citizenry opened fire.

Some famous deputy U.S. marshals showed remarkable tenacity in tracking down a gang. Still there were robberies. Then came the automobile. It did not take criminals long to learn it could be useful in robbing banks.

By the time the law was alerted, the bandits were far away and usually driving a car other than the one used in robbing the bank.

Kidnaping probably hit the bank robbery business its hardest blow. The nation was aroused. The FBI was relentless in its pursuit. In nabbing kidnapers, agents landed old bank robbers.

Bank robbery did not die entirely, but it was no longer an every day occurrence. Now and then somebody would get ambitious and pull a job. But few criminals wanted to point a pistol at a cashier and get a shot of tear gas in return.

World War II virtually ended bank robbery in the once wide open spaces where it formerly flourished. It may never again reach the heights it did in the 1920s.

The synod also backed the church's urban crisis appeal which asks $6.5 million for social work. Ohio Lutherans are being asked to find $180,000 in 1968, and $210,000 in 1969.

Overhead Sidewalks Set In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — More than $1 million in contracts for construction of the city's first overhead sidewalks were awarded Tuesday and work was expected to begin by the end of the month.

The sheltered walkways will extend from the second level of the Convention-Exposition Center on Elm Street through old Opera Place to the west side of Race Street — a three-block long area. Completion is set for next June.

Wallace Manager Sees Ohio Win

CINCINNATI (AP) — A campaign coordinator, paving the way for the visit of presidential hopeful George Wallace, says the former Alabama governor will carry Ohio—regardless of the ballot situation.

Tom Turnipseed said Tuesday Wallace would win in Ohio if he is permitted to be but a write-in candidate.

Wallace is scheduled to arrive at Lunken Airport at noon Friday to speak at a rally.

According To Boyle

By JOY STILLEW (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — I go to bed every night, shaking, and every morning I wake up, shaking.

It isn't really a case of nerves. It's a case of having a bed equipped with an automatic vibrating unit. You just flip a switch, set the timer, and it's rockabye, baby.

The thing not only puts me to sleep—it wakes me up, too. Just set the alarm, and instead of bells or buzzers at the appointed time, the mattress starts moving, announcing in its mechanical manner that I'd better get moving too.

It all started when my husband and I took a trip. All along the way we saw billboards advertising motels with beds equipped with vibrating mattresses. It sounded fascinating, but somehow the establishments always turned up about noon—and since we never got started in the morning until 10, this seemed a bit early to stop.

During 10 days of travel, these slumber wonders eluded us nightly, but on the final day of the trip we decided we could not return to our mundane existence without experiencing the wonder of shaking slumber.

Accordingly, we kept going that night until we finally found a motel with a magic mattress. At that point we were only about 75 miles from our house, but unknown adventure beckoned far more enticing than the known comforts of home.

It turned out that the highly advertised vibrating bed required one quarter for each half-hour of its activity. Nevertheless, we spent most of the night feeding it coins so that it would perform its gyrations.

We peered and poked and prodded, but were never able to learn what made the thing go. I personally favored the theory that there was a full-time masseur hidden somewhere beneath the bed, pocketing the quarters and swishing the springs.

We didn't get much sleep, and departed the next morning quite shaken, literally and figuratively, by our discovery.

In fact, so entranced was my husband by the electric marvel that I decided it would make a good gift for the man who has everything, as I keep telling him.

While he was shaving I managed to find the name of the manufacturer on the bedside controls and I was all set to do my Christmas shopping early.

I ordered the device by mail and made elaborate arrangements with a neighbor to receive and hide what I assumed would be a package of bed-size proportions. It turned out to be a tiny box containing a motor, a maze of connecting wires and a clock.

Nevertheless, when he opened it my husband was all shook up by the unexpected present, and we both have been ever since.

An electric computer has decided that the poet Homer actually did write "The Odyssey" and "The Iliad." In this case, it wasn't the Greeks who had the word for it — Odyssey may seem.

"Liederkrantz" means a collection of songs, in German — Photographs. Just a bunch of cheesy tunes?

A whiskey-distilling area in Scotland may go dry — not by law but by nature. A drought has dried up the peat streams on the Isle of Islay and may cancel out the proposed production of five million gallons of scotch this autumn!

A New York night club reports it's being swamped with requests for reservations for next New Year's Eve. Well, that's one way of taking one's mind off the current heat wave.

Getty Museum

By GENE HANDSAKER
(For Bob Thomas)
AP Television-Movie Writer

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — This surfer's paradise and playground of the movie stars is a curious location for one of the best small, private art museums in the United States—and perhaps the world.

But then, the founder is a man of some eccentricity: J. Paul Getty, who also may be the world's richest man.

The J. Paul Getty Museum is scarcely noticed by the thousands of beach goers who motor past its gates on these hot September days. It is marked by a modest sign on Pacific Coast Highway, and entrance through the gates is by appointment only.

A mere 75 visitors are admitted twice each week, on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2 p.m. Reservations are made by telephone, and if you're lucky, you might get one for two or three weeks hence. When you arrive, a burly guard checks your name and allows you to drive up the road that leads to the museum, which is hidden from the highway.

Visitors park their cars near the kennel that houses two vicious watchdogs and proceed into a courtyard with sculptured fountain. Then they are admitted to the sculpture gallery where the tour begins.

A bright young man, one of the museum's eight employees, gives a chatty introduction to the tour. He answers some of the most-asked questions:

The museum is on an 80-acre site that once was Mr. Getty's home. He has not lived there since 1951, when he moved his residence to England—"so there isn't much trace of him here."

After a considerable lapse, Mr. Getty has begun sending over works of art once more, and there are plans to expand the museum, allowing greater attendance. The museum was built adjacent to his residence after his departure—"so he has never seen it, except in photographs."

The residence remains empty. "For the past 17 years, Mr. Getty has said that he was coming back next month; so far he hasn't."

The tour is both informative and informal. The prize of the sculpture collection is the Lansdowne Hercules, which once graced the Emperor Hadrian's villa at Tivoli. The guide points out the classical features of the face and observes that many visitors see a resemblance to Elvis Presley.

The paintings are displayed in a small theater of the Getty home which was once used for chamber concerts. The room is alive with the brilliant colors of Rubens, Titian and Veronese. There is also a Gainsborough, "Portrait of Sir James Christie."

Abernathy To Defy Court, Lead Sanitation Strike

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy says he will lead Atlanta's striking garbage men in major demonstrations despite a court injunction ordering the men back to work.

Abernathy, successor to the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said he may call for support from across the country for the 1,000 garbage men in their bid for a $2.50 - per - hour minimum pay.

"We've got some good friends in this country. We don't have to march by ourselves," Abernathy declared, speaking at a meeting of more than 400 persons held at an Atlanta Negro Baptist church Tuesday night. Abernathy and union leader Morton Shapiro, negotiator for the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Union, were among the 80 persons arrested earlier in the day in demonstrations involving the strike. Abernathy and Shapiro were released later on bond.

"No injunction is going to collect garbage in the city of Atlanta," Shapiro said, adding, "we're going to violate the injunction that was handed to me." The injunction was issued Tuesday.

Abernathy called Atlanta a fine city "that has told us a lie all these years . . . This city that has paraded as the city too busy to hate but will not pay the men to collect garbage."

He said all the forces of SCLC will be committed to the garbage strike battle.

"We're going to hear some good speeches, then we're going to have some marches. We might march up and down Peachtree Street, like Sherman marched on down. But you've got to keep these demonstrations nonviolent. For God's sakes, do not turn to violence," Abernathy said.

Union and city officials met until late in the afternoon Tuesday, but both sides said after the session that negotiations are stalled, although further meetings may be held today.

Georgia's Talmadge Faces Negro Challenge In Primary

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A Negro attorney is challenging Democratic Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, heir to a political organization that dates back to the 1930s, in the state's first two-party primary today.

Talmadge supporters predict victory in his contest with Maynard Jackson, 30, but acknowledge that a light voter turnout—or even a heavy switchover to Republican ranks—could harm the senator's chances of winning a third consecutive term. The Democratic nominee will face

Republican opposition. The 55-year-old senator is a former governor who inherited a political machine fashioned by his father, the red-suspender-snapping Eugene Talmadge who won the governor's chair four times in the 1930s and 1940s.

His late father was an outspoken advocate of segregation, and when his son became governor two years after his death in 1946, he also became widely known as a proponent of white supremacy and a harsh critic of Supreme Court desegregation decisions.

Talmadge's stance on race has been softened in his speeches and comments during the dozen years in Washington and he appeared occasionally before Negro and integrated groups.

draw racial lines in the contest. His charge stemmed from a newspaper advertisement by Talmadge supporters telling voters it was "urgent" for them to vote in the primary to prevent "a minority candidate with a small but organized bloc of voters" from defeating the senator.

But Jackson's candidacy has been softened in his speeches and comments during the dozen years in Washington and he appeared occasionally before Negro and integrated groups.

Q. DO YOU ASSUME THAT UNLESS YOU CAN SEE A FLAW WITH THE NAKED EYE, A DIAMOND IS FLAWLESS?

A. Flaws or inclusions that can be seen with the un-aided eye, obviously mar the beauty of a diamond. Only when there is no flaw visible under 10-power magnification should a diamond properly be called "flawless." As members of the American Gem Society, we have been trained to determine a diamond's clarity exactly, and show you exactly. 4 Share Stouffer Prize For Angiotensin Research

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The 1968 Stouffer Prize of $50,000 will be shared by four doctors for their work in angiotensin, a natural substance in a person's blood estimated to be so powerful that seven ounces of it would raise the blood pressure of every person in the United States.

The Vernon Stouffer Foundation in Cleveland today announced these winners:

—Dr. F. Merlin Bumpus, 45, chairman and director, research division, Cleveland Clinic Foundation.

—Dr. Leonard T. Skeggs Jr., 50, chief of the biochemistry section and co-director, Hypertension Research Laboratory, Cleveland Veterans Administration Hospital.

—Dr. Robert Schwyzer, 47, professor and head of the new department of molecular biology, Swiss Federal Institute of Technology, Zurich, Switzerland.

—Dr. William Stanley Peart, 46, professor of medicine, St. Mary's Hospital, London, England.

The four will be honored at an awards dinner in Cleveland Oct. 11 held in conjunction with sessions of the Council for High Blood Pressure Research of the American Heart Association.

The Stouffer Foundation said the four doctors investigated angiotensin because it is "hot suspect as a cause of high blood pressure."

"They wanted to learn in minute detail how this fantastic blood pressure raising stuff was made, what it was made of and how it worked," the foundation said. "If they had such information they might then logically develop ways to alter or block angiotensin's action."

Because of the doctor's work, the foundation said "more is known about angiotensin than any other substance in the body's blood pressure control system."

Crop Forecasts For Ohio Given

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Agriculture Department released Tuesday this year's crop forecast for Ohio (average bushels per acre first followed by total bushel production):

Corn for grain, 90 and 259,560,000; winter wheat, 38 and 46,588,000; oats, 68 and 45,878,000; soybeans, 29 and 66,004,000.

Sugarbeets, 20 tons acre for total tonnage of 700,000; tobacco, 2,300 pounds acre for total of 21,850,000. Barley production was estimated at 18,240,000 compared to 17,427,000 last year.

Several thousand different varieties of wheat are grown around the world.

Agnew Proving GOP Hatchet Man

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The man with the political hatchet in hand in the Republican presidential campaign camp seems to be Spiro T. Agnew.

As the No. 2 man on the GOP ticket, Maryland Gov. Agnew chopped away at Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic nominee, with the kind of spirited abandon enemies of Richard M. Nixon have attributed to him in the past.

Nixon, the top GOP candidate, obviously is trying to avoid being tagged as a bare knuckles campaigner. He speaks kindly of Humphrey, while challenging the vice president on the issues and the record of the Johnson administration.

Agnew, on the other hand, made it perfectly clear he is ready for political fisticuffs when he thinks the other side is inviting it. He characterized himself as a "counter fighter," a belligerent who awaits his opponent's blow and retaliates with one of his own.

What stirred Agnew to political anger was Humphrey's observation that the Nixon-Agnew team seemed to be going for a military, rather than a diplomatic, settlement of the Vietnam war.

To Agnew, Humphrey's assessment that Nixon was taking a hard line on Vietnam added up to "annual and unwarranted attack" on the Republican nominee—to be answered in kind despite all of the lofty promises from both sides that there would be no resort to personalities.

The Maryland governor quickly ticked off a series of indictments against Humphrey. He stumbled once by naming Nixon as the object of his attack but quickly recovered when reporters began laughing.

Agnew said Humphrey had turned "squishy soft" in an effort to recapture Democratic dissidents who opposed his nomination and who want to "disengage in Vietnam at any cost."

Indirectly, he hung an appeal label on the vice president for a suggestion that some withdrawals of U.S. troops could begin late this year or early in 1969.

Applying a little poetic license to politics, he said Humphrey was casting himself in the role of Neville Chamberlain at Munich and Nixon was standing firmly with Winston Churchill.

From what he described as a position smacking of "peace at any price," he said Humphrey was "trying to move back into an equivocal stance" on the war.

He said Humphrey was "attempting to lift the American people up to the prospect of peace when there is no evidence that peace is in sight."

Asked if he wasn't being a bit rough in the clinches, Agnew replied: "When my team is kicked in the groin, I don't stand by and take it."

Blast Daley Description Of Violence

NEW YORK (AP) — Leaders of antiwar demonstrations during the Democratic convention in Chicago have termed "dishonest and incorrect" Mayor Richard J. Daley's account of police action.

David Dellinger, chairman of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, a coalition of 100 antiwar groups, told newsmen Tuesday: "I think the brutality that took place has not been adequately but partially documented in the press."

Mayor Daley issued a 15,000-word report on the disorders defending police action and contending that "terrorists" deliberately provoked overreaction.

Dellinger said the committee had unsuccessfully sought for two months for permission from the Chicago authorities "for normal and orderly outlets for protests."

A characteristic of a police state, Dellinger said, "is to smear the victims after brutalizing them so its appears justified."

Rennie Davis, project director for the committee, refuted Daley's assertion that only 60 demonstrators were injured.

"Those people who were treated in our own medical units numbered nearly 400," Davis said.

Policeman Wins Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Patrolman Richard Wright, 25, has made 74 arrests, won five departmental citations and has nine more pending in his 30 months on the force.

On Tuesday, Wright added to his laurels by intercepting and arresting three men accused of holding up the Hotel Osborn at New Rochelle, N.Y., in neighboring Westchester County. An undetermined amount of cash was taken.

Cruising in the Bronx in his patrol car, Wright heard of the robbery on the radio and figured out what route the men might take to get to New York City.

He hit it right. As the patrolman arrived at the Major Deegan Expressway entrance to the city, he spotted a car answering the radio description. Wright captured all three.

—Dr. Leonard T. Skeggs Jr., 50, chief of the biochemistry section and co-director, Hypertension Research Laboratory, Cleveland Veterans Administration Hospital.

—Dr. Robert Schwyzer, 47, professor and head of the new department of molecular biology, Swiss Federal Institute of Technology, Zurich, Switzerland.

—Dr. William Stanley Peart, 46, professor of medicine, St. Mary's Hospital, London, England.

The four will be honored at an awards dinner in Cleveland Oct. 11 held in conjunction with sessions of the Council for High Blood Pressure Research of the American Heart Association.

The Stouffer Foundation said the four doctors investigated angiotensin because it is "hot suspect as a cause of high blood pressure."

"They wanted to learn in minute detail how this fantastic blood pressure raising stuff was made, what it was made of and how it worked," the foundation said. "If they had such information they might then logically develop ways to alter or block angiotensin's action."

Because of the doctor's work, the foundation said "more is known about angiotensin than any other substance in the body's blood pressure control system."

Crop Forecasts For Ohio Given

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Agriculture Department released Tuesday this year's crop forecast for Ohio (average bushels per acre first followed by total bushel production):

Corn for grain, 90 and 259-560,000; winter wheat, 38 and 46,588,000; oats, 68 and 45,878,000; soybeans, 29 and 66,004,000. Sugarbeets, 20 tons acre for total tonnage of 700,000; tobacco, 2,300 pounds acre for total of 21,850,000. Barley production was estimated at 18,240,000 compared to 17,427,000 last year.

Several thousand different varieties of wheat are grown around the world.

Agnew Proving GOP Hatchet Man

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The man with the political hatchet in hand in the Republican presidential campaign camp seems to be Spiro T. Agnew.

As the No. 2 man on the GOP ticket, Maryland Gov. Agnew chopped away at Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic nominee, with the kind of spirited abandon enemies of Richard M. Nixon have attributed to him in the past.

Nixon, the top GOP candidate, obviously is trying to avoid being tagged as a bare knuckles campaigner. He speaks kindly of Humphrey, while challenging the vice president on the issues and the record of the Johnson administration.

Policeman Wins Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Patrolman Richard Wright, 25, has made 74 arrests, won five departmental citations and has nine more pending in his 30 months on the force.

On Tuesday, Wright added to his laurels by intercepting and arresting three men accused of holding up the Hotel Osborn at New Rochelle, N.Y., in neighboring Westchester County. An undetermined amount of cash was taken.

Cruising in the Bronx in his patrol car, Wright heard of the robbery on the radio and figured out what route the men might take to get to New York City.

He hit it right. As the patrolman arrived at the Major Deegan Expressway entrance to the city, he spotted a car answering the radio description. Wright captured all three.

Agnew, on the other hand, made it perfectly clear he is ready for political fisticuffs when he thinks the other side is inviting it. He characterized himself as a "counter fighter," a belligerent who awaits his opponent's blow and retaliates with one of his own.

What stirred Agnew to political anger was Humphrey's observation that the Nixon-Agnew team seemed to be going for a military, rather than a diplomatic, settlement of the Vietnam war.

To Agnew, Humphrey's assessment that Nixon was taking a hard line on Vietnam added up to "annual and unwarranted attack" on the Republican nominee—to be answered in kind despite all of the lofty promises from both sides that there would be no resort to personalities.

The Maryland governor quickly ticked off a series of indictments against Humphrey. He stumbled once by naming Nixon as the object of his attack but quickly recovered when reporters began laughing.

Agnew said Humphrey had turned "squishy soft" in an effort to recapture Democratic dissidents who opposed his nomination and who want to "disengage in Vietnam at any cost."

Indirectly, he hung an appeal label on the vice president for a suggestion that some withdrawals of U.S. troops could begin late this year or early in 1969.

Applying a little poetic license to politics, he said Humphrey was casting himself in the role of Neville Chamberlain at Munich and Nixon was standing firmly with Winston Churchill.

From what he described as a position smacking of "peace at any price," he said Humphrey was "trying to move back into an equivocal stance" on the war.

He said Humphrey was "attempting to lift the American people up to the prospect of peace when there is no evidence that peace is in sight."

Asked if he wasn't being a bit rough in the clinches, Agnew replied: "When my team is kicked in the groin, I don't stand by and take it."

5 More Ohioans Killed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five Ohio servicemen have been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Tuesday.

They were Spec. 4 Robert E. Botts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Botts, Columbus; Spec. 4 James C. Holmes, father of Master James A. Holmes, Columbus; Pfc. Michael C. Kolarov, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard V. Kolarov, Copley; Pfc. Barry R. Moree, son of Betty Kolody, Cuyahoga Falls and Pfc. Timothy E. Shanower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shanower, Perrysburg.

All were Army men except Shanower, who was a Marine.

Eye Noisy Planes

TOKYO (AP) — The Tokyo metropolitan government has started an investigation of noise from planes landing and taking off at two U.S. military bases on the western outskirts of Tokyo. The survey at Yokota and Tachikawa air bases was ordered by Tokyo Gov. Ryokichi Minobe, a member of the anti-American Socialist Party.

Nixon To Pay Quick Visit To Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon will have little chance to meet the public during an 18-hour visit to Cleveland this week.

Nixon is scheduled to arrive at Cleveland-Hopkins International Airport Friday evening and party officials said no plans had been made for a motorcade from the airport to the Hotel Sheraton-Cleveland where Nixon will spend the night.

The main item on Nixon's Cleveland agenda is a statewide television appearance Friday evening when six Greater Clevelanders will toss unrehearsed questions at the candidate.

Nixon's wife, Pat, daughter

Julie, and her fiancé, David Eisenhower, grandson of former President Eisenhower, will take part in the telecast.

Before leaving Cleveland Saturday morning, Nixon will either visit a West Side shopping center or make a brief appearance at a GOP breakfast reception.

Man Is Indicted In Son's Murder

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A 49-year-old New Middleton man Tuesday was indicted by Mahoning County grand jurors with first-degree murder in the strangulation death of his 13-year-old son.

Jurors recommended that John Reakes be sent to Lima State Hospital for mental tests.

Reakes was arrested Aug. 27. Sheriff's deputies said he told them he had killed his son, Martin, and sealed his body in the basement of their home.

Middle-Class Blacks Against Stokes Development Plans

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Residents of a middle-class black community are locked in a battle with City Hall over plans to move 277 low-income negro families into the Lee-Seville area.

Mayor Carl B. Stokes, a Negro, has warned the residents that their opposition could cripple efforts to integrate the city's suburbs.

"If middle-class Negroes won't accept a public housing development what kind of success do they think they will have in integrating the suburbs?" Stokes said Monday.

Residents complain that existing services in the Lee-Seville area are already inadequate and the influx of another 277 families, and possibly 2,000 children, would lower the value of their home and turn the area into a slum.

Stokes plan calls for the houses to be built on a 51-acre site in the suburb at a cost of $5 million. The houses would range from one to five bedrooms, with styling and construction comparable to that of $20,000 homes in the neighborhood. The families would pay rents of only $40 to $80 a month.

Center Opened

NEW YORK (AP) — A $9.5-million clinical research center has been opened by Cornell University Medical College. The 10-story structure in the Cornell medical complex on the East Side contains 200 laboratories. Its name is the William Hale Harkness Medical Research Building.

and would be given the opportunity to eventually purchase their homes.

Stokes, who hoped to incorporate the plan into his CLEVELAND NOW! program, which promises to provide 4,600 low-income dwelling units, said he fears the opposition from Lee-Seville residents will ultimately "slow down the city's urban renewal program."

CLEVELAND NOW! is a 10-year program aimed at rehabilitating and redeveloping urban areas.

Irving M. Kriegsfield, director of the Cleveland Metropolitan Housing Authority, says the project would enhance the neighborhood rather than cause property values to go down.

Although Stokes has managed to gain the support of ministers and powerful community groups in Lee-Seville and adjoining areas he still faces a tough battle to get the plan approved by City Council.

Mutual Fund Trading Brings Anxiety In Wall Street

REIGNY SEASON—Starting her reign as "Miss America," Judith Anne Ford, a University of Illinois sophomore, looks out over the Atlantic City coast line.

Dear Abby: Sometimes, A Dime Can Be A Lifesaver

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I went on a blind date with this fellow who was recommended by a friend. He was very nice looking and his manners were good, but you can't tell anything these days by looking. Well, he took me to a drive-in movie and he was just too fast for me, so I asked him to take me right home after the movie ended, but he had other ideas.

Well, luckily he slowed up for a stop sign and I jumped out of the car. He didn't even try to stop me. He just drove off and left me. I was about 10 miles from home, and I didn't have any money with me so I thumbed a ride with a truck driver who was nice enough to take me to my door.

When I got home my father was raving mad. He said I took a terrible chance thumbing a ride home with a stranger. Yet I couldn't have walked all that way, and I wanted to get away from the guy. Was I wrong?

SEVENTEEN: No girl should leave the house without at least a dime with which to make a telephone call. If you haven't a mother or father to call in case you need transportation, call a friend or relative. Or even the police department. Young ladies should not "thumb" rides with strangers, neither should they be walking alone at night. Play safe. ALWAYS carry enough money for transportation home.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is retired now, and most of his cronies are either dead or too sick to be any company to him. He used to be quite the "man about town" and I spent many evenings alone and heavy-hearted, wondering when he would come home.

Now, do you know what? I can't get him out of the house. I actually have to look for things for him to do. "Go to the grocery store! Go to the drug store! Go to the hardware store!"

I can't stand the sight of him anymore. I get nauseated when I hear his key in the door. After he reads the morning paper, he starts to follow me around like a puppy, supervising the cooking, housekeeping, etc.

If I have an acquaintance in for a cup of tea, he moves right in and monopolizes the conversation.

Dear God, I am so sick of him, death would be a welcome release.

SINCERELY, WEARY
DEAR WEARY: Yours or his? The quality of a marriage is only as good as the materials used by the builders. The "lumber of life" is caring, sharing, patience, forgiveness and understanding. One can't expect to spend the twilight years in a cathedral when he's accumulated only enough "lumber" for a shack.

DEAR ABBY: Please answer yes or no as this is a very important question to me. Do you think a 60-year-old man can really fall in love?

BUTTERFLIES IN STOMACH
DEAR BUTTERFLIES: YES! Cupid never consults the calendar.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WORTHINGTON: Failure is not a sign of weakness. On the contrary, it can be a sign of strength. It means you've tried.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69709, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

NEW YORK (AP) — An increase of about 80 per cent in the number of big block trades on the New York Stock Exchange has aroused the concern and interest of the President, the Securities and Exchange Commission and a university professor.

The big blocks—exchanges of 10,000 shares or more—are traded as much as 50 or more times a day and can affect the price of one or more stocks. The stock market ticker carries to all parts of the country the information on the big trades—mostly by the institutional investors—and one stock goes up two points, another down one, up one-half, down two.

The extremely rapid turnover caused by the buy-sell, buy-sell activity of the mutual funds—one type of institutional power—has caused most market watchers to become anxious.

Reasons for concern over actions of the mutual funds are numerous.

One of the fast moving conglomerates, "Automatic" Sprinkler Corp. was a darling of the mutual funds. The funds held 23 per cent of the stock.

Early this year the report hit Wall Street that earnings of "Automatic" would be disappointing. The funds began a quick selloff, getting rid of about half their holdings.

In the first quarter of the year various funds sold 34,800 shares of "Automatic," 17,640 shares, 32,160, 108,152, 59,650, 98,652. There was some buying, but not enough to counter the effect of the dumping by the funds.

"Automatic" plunged from $74 a share to a low of under $24.

The funds, with billions of dollars in the market, have hit other companies and industries hard. Their power has caused government officials and Wall Street observers to grow more and more concerned. And as the power of the funds increase the concern has grown to such extent that three separate investigations have been launched or are planned. Probers will look into the power and effect not only of the mutual funds but also of all institutional investment organizations.

Mutual funds have attracted the most attention because of their almost fantastic growth and because of the nature of some of their operations. The funds have grown from $500 million 28 years ago to nearly $50 billion.

Many persons who watch the market are concerned that the institutions buy and sell in such large blocks that their actions—even though not collusive—can have a major effect on the stock prices.

Manuel F. Cohen, chairman of the SEC, said the stock exchange is "an auction market which was built to take care of random orders coming from all over the world in small numbers." He said it was not designed for funds which deal in 25,000 share lots.

One of the effects that will be studied is the action the funds have based on their acting on information made available to them by the same source—major research organizations that sell their services to large investors.

The funds are not content to sit back and watch their investment earn 6 per cent. Many are looking and trading for short-term gains, willing to jump in and out of a stock within weeks for a fast 20 per cent gain.

Their actions can affect a particular stock.

A survey of 171 of the largest funds for the first quarter of 1968 by Facts on the Funds, Inc., shows that funds held 30.5 per cent of the stock in Great Western Financial, 28.5 per cent of Control Data, 24 per cent of Burroughs Corp., 27 per cent of Collins Radio, and 30.1 per cent of Studebaker-Worthington.

Twenty or 40 funds may own the stock but they tend to act on the information provided to them by private research firms, information that is not made available to the small investor.

If the funds decided to sell their stock in a particular company, they could have the same effect as they had on "Automatic."

The biggest question today on Wall Street, at the Securities and Exchange Commission and in the minds of small investors is: What are the institutions doing to the market?

The question takes on tremendous importance when it is realized that 24 million Americans hold stocks either directly or through funds.

The fact that these institutions—mutual funds, pensions, insurance companies, trusts, college endowments—own about 40 per cent of all stock on the New York Stock Exchange gives dimension to the situation that some observers consider disturbing. They ask:

Do mutual funds and other institutions, because of their great power and active trading, cause stock prices to be highly volatile?

Does this trading put the small investor at an unfair disadvantage?

Are the institutions, by their great concentration of wealth, making the price of some stocks rise and fall by their trading?

Is there a danger that the institutions can manipulate the market?

The President, Cohen, the U.S. Senate and the university professor propose to get the answers to all or some of these questions in investigations now under way or planned.

Despite the argument over whether fund trading had an effect, there is no question at all about the increase in fund trading.

In the second quarter of 1968 there were 2,953 transactions on the New York exchange involving 10,000 shares or more. This is 1,363 more large block trades than in the similar quarter of 1967, or an increase within one year of 79 per cent in large block trades. There were only 399 big blocks traded in the last quarter of 1964.

These big block transactions accounted for 8.8 per cent of exchange volume in the second quarter compared to 6.4 per cent in the same quarter of 1967. In 1965, big block trades accounted for only 3 per cent of the exchange's volume.

The funds, according to calculations of Capital Gains Research Bureau, Inc., own $48.4 billion worth of stock and this is expected to increase to over $100 billion by 1975. The total value of stocks on the New York exchange is estimated at $621 billion.

Dear Abby: Sometimes, A Dime Can Be A Lifesaver

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I went on a blind date with this fellow who was recommended by a friend. He was very nice looking and his manners were good, but you can't tell anything these days by looking. Well, he took me to a drive-in movie and he was just too fast for me, so I asked him to take me right home after the movie ended, but he had other ideas.

Nixon Family Roots Deep In Southeastern Ohio

By BILL MILLER
Logan Daily News

LOGAN, Ohio (AP)—A sturdy tribe of Nixons in Hocking, Vinton and Perry counties will testify to the Ohio heritage of Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon.

The former vice president's family roots go deep into the Southeastern Ohio hill country.

His great-great-grandfather, George Nixon, was 60 years old when he migrated from Virginia to Vinton County in 1844. One of his sons, George III, followed him to Ohio in 1853, became a Union soldier in the Civil War and was killed at Gettysburg in 1863, leaving a family of eight children.

One of those children was Samuel Brady Nixon who was 14 when his father was killed. At 26 he married the daughter of a neighboring storekeeper, Sarah Wadsworth, and they became the parents of Richard Nixon's father, Frank, and four other children.

Samuel Nixon remarried after

Sarah died in 1886 and with his new wife, moved to Mt. Pleasant on the Hocking - Vinton county line.

It was there that Richard Nixon's father grew up. In those years, the Nixons were all industrious hill farmers and Democrats, as were most of their neighbors.

Frank Nixon broke with family tradition and became a Republican during the McKinley presidential campaign.

Frank Nixon was 23 when he moved to Columbus in 1901. He worked there six years as a streetcar operator, then moved in 1907 to Whittier, Calif.

He reared his family as Quakers and Republicans and lived to see his son become the U.S. Vice President. He died in 1956.

The Nixon clan has multiplied mightily in this area with four of five branches in Hocking County alone. In 1960, Richard Nixon made two campaign trips by train through his father's native hills.

There is no report as yet just where all the Ohio Nixons stand, in the present campaign, but it is a good bet that most of them will be voting for "Cousin Dick."

Pickaway Grange

SALT CREEK GRANGE
Saltcreek Valley Grange No. 2314 elected officers for the 1968-69 sessions during a recent meeting.

Francis Fraunfelder was elected master. Others elected were Virgil Timmons, overseer; Paul Dunkle, lecturer; Judson Reougher, steward; Robert Collins, Sr., assistant steward; Grace Anderson, chaplain; Orley Judy, treasurer; Mary Fraunfelder, secretary; Wayne Cryder, gatekeeper; Leo- ra Sayre, cures; Mary DeLong, pomona; Esther Collins, flora; Donna Beougher, lady assistant steward; Virginia Luckhart; pianist; Wayne Cryder, legislative agent; Francis Fraunfelder, executive committee.

Paul Dunkle gave a report of the prince and princess pageant held at Scioto Valley Grange Hall, Doyle Miller, a member of the Saltcreek Valley Grange, was crowned prince.

The grange voted to change the meeting times to 8 p.m. until Nov. 1. Then meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. A note from Hoyt Timmons, who returned from Grant Hospital, was read.

The literary program carried the theme "Beginning of the New Grange Year." Following the singing of "Come Along, Worthy Grangers," Mary Fraunfelder read "Nature Is Beautiful." The closing song was the National Grange Centennial.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Orley Judy, Elaine Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Judy.

Hunter Does OK After Freak Mishap

COSHOCTON, Ohio (AP) — Memorial Hospital officials listed George Rose Jr., 25, of Elyria in fair condition today following a three-hour operation for removal of a knife blade and shotgun slug.

Rose was wounded Monday when a shotgun in the rear of his car discharged accidentally, driving the blade of a hunting knife he was carrying and the slug into his lower back.

Indian Hemp Is Destroyed

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Two years ago Michael Dumbroski decided to plant some Indian hemp on his farm in nearby Copley Township.

The plants flourished and Dumbroski used them to make rope.

But Tuesday Summit County sheriff's deputies dug up the plants and burned them saying they could have produced at $30,000 in marijuana.

County Prosecutor James Barbuto said no charges would be filed against Dumbroski.

ver, CBS Tuesday night came up with a timely inspection of college football scholarships.

Each year, according to narrator Roger Mudd, about 6,000 young athletes receive scholarships representing about $20 million worth of tuition, books, room and board plus spending money.

Throughout the 60 minute program, suggestions were dropped that some colleges or loyal alumni offer additional and illegal (under National Collegiate Athletic Association rules) financial inducements to star high school football players.

The program showed the scope and pressures of college recruitment programs for football players by following the experiences of two high school seniors.

One was Jesse Causey, a Miami, Fla., boy whose quarter-backing but not his grades attracted football recruiters from distances. The second, Charles Dudish, from an Atlanta, Ga., suburb, was another star quarter-back and one with excellent grades. He was of enormous interest to football coaches from the Ivy League schools as well as to colleges and universities across the nation.

The boys and the recruiters seemed quite conscious of the camera as they and their families were sold the advantages offered by the various colleges. They were taken on gala weekends on campuses; provided with attractive dates; made guests of honor at swinging parties; flown around in private planes and given short holidays at hunting lodges.

When it was all over, Causey chose a scholarship from the University of Alabama whose coach is Paul "Bear" Bryant. Dudish picked George Tech. And Roger Mudd had a few words to say about the hazard of the athletic scholarship—"the high value placed on football above scholarship."

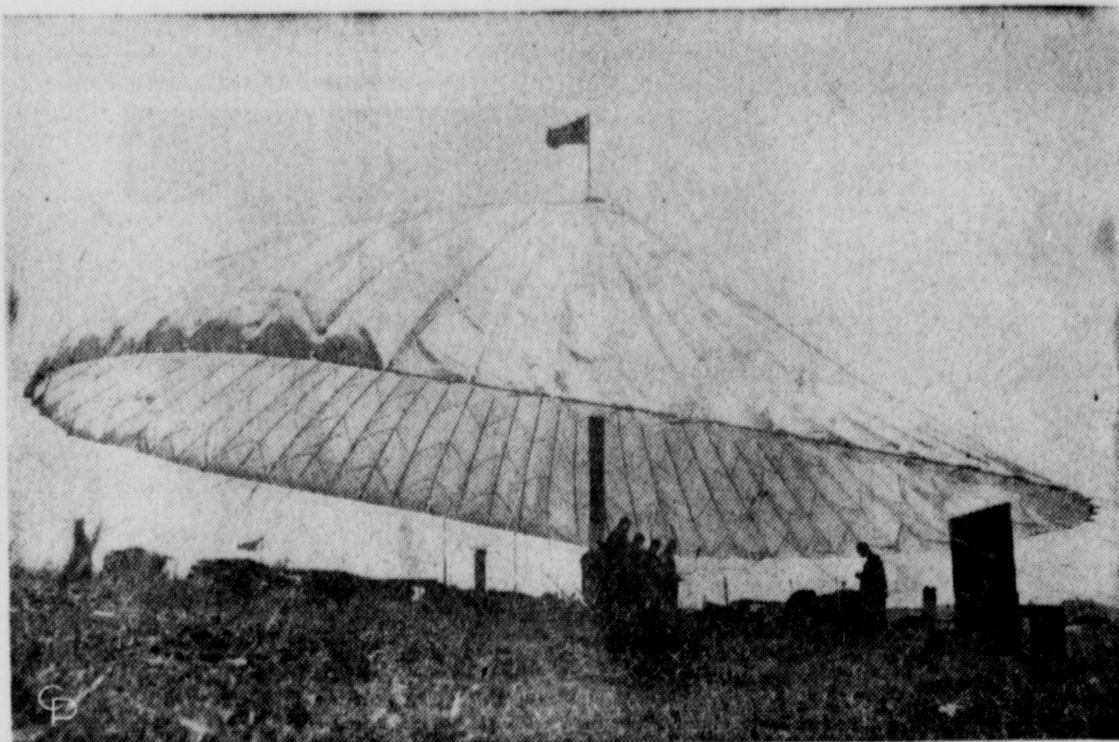

That may be true, but it did sound strange coming from a representative of a television network that competes financially with rival networks for the privilege of broadcasting football games.

After two successive nights watching the new version of the old "What's my Line?" now being broadcast on local stations around the country, it must be said that the venerable game show has lost some charm in transition.

A lot of the old game has remained the same—the general form, with the guests signing in by scribbling on a blackboard, the flowery introductions by and of the panel and moderator, the blindfolds for the mystery guest portion.

Most of the show's personnel is transient—three temporary panelists, and a new host, Arlene Francis, however, is still around. The guests' lines are about the same—a lady truck driver, a man who burns old money for the Federal Reserve and a woman who dives on horseback.

But something seems to be lacking. Maybe the format just wore out from old age.

The Nixon clan has multiplied mightily in this area with four of five branches in Hocking County alone. In 1960, Richard Nixon made two campaign trips by train through his father's native hills.

There is no report as yet just where all the Ohio Nixons stand in the present campaign, but it is a good bet that most of them will be voting for "Cousin Dick."

SALT CREEK GRANGE

Salt Creek Valley Grange No. 2314 elected officers for the 1968-69 sessions during a recent meeting.

Francis Fraunfelter was elected master. Others elected were Virgil Timmons, overseer; Paul Dunkle, lecturer; Judson Beougher, steward; Robert Collins, Sr., assistant steward; Grace Anderson, chaplain; Orley Judy, treasurer; Mary Fraunfelter, secretary; Wayne Cryder, gatekeeper; Leonard Savre, cures; Mary DeLong, pomona; Esther Collins, flora; Donna Beougher, lady assistant steward; Virginia Luckhart, pianist; Wayne Cryder, legislative agent; Francis Fraunfelter, executive committee.

Paul Dunkle gave a report of the prince and princess pageant held at Scioto Valley Grange Hall, Doyle Miller, a member of the Salt Creek Valley Grange, was crowned prince.

The grange voted to change the meeting times to 8 p.m. until Nov. 1. Then meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. A note from Hoyt Timmons, who returned from Grant Hospital, was read.

The literary program carried the theme "Beginning of the New Grange Year." Following the singing of "Come Along, Worthy Grangers," Mary Fraunfelter read "Nature Is Beautiful." The closing song was the National Grange Centennial.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Orley Judy, Elaine Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Judy.

Hunter Does OK After Freak Mishap

COSHOCTON, Ohio (AP)—Memorial Hospital officials listed George Rose Jr., 25, of Elyria in fair condition today following a three-hour operation for removal of a knife blade and shotgun slug.

Rose was wounded Monday when a shotgun in the rear of his car discharged accidentally, driving the blade of a hunting knife he was carrying and the slug into his lower back.

Indian Hemp Is Destroyed

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Two years ago Michael Dumbroski decided to plant some Indian hemp on his farm in nearby Copley Township.

The plants flourished and Dumbroski used them to make rope.

But Tuesday Summit County sheriff's deputies dug up the plants and burned them saying they could have produced at $30,000 in marijuana.

County Prosecutor James Barbuto said no charges would be filed against Dumbroski.

ver, CBS Tuesday night came up with a timely inspection of college football scholarships.

Each year, according to narrator Roger Mudd, about 6,000 young athletes receive scholarships representing about $20 million worth of tuition, books, room and board plus spending money.

Throughout the 60 minute program, suggestions were dropped that some colleges or loyal alumni offer additional and illegal (under National Collegiate Athletic Association rules) financial inducements to star high school football players.

The program showed the scope and pressures of college recruitment programs for football players by following the experiences of two high school seniors.

One was Jesse Causey, a Miami, Fla., boy whose quarterbacking but not his grades attracted football recruiters from distances. The second, Charles Dudish, from an Atlanta, Ga., suburb, was another star quarterback and one with excellent grades. He was of enormous interest to football coaches from the Ivy League schools as well as to colleges and universities across the nation.

The boys and the recruiters seemed quite conscious of the camera as they and their families were sold the advantages offered by the various colleges.

They were taken on gala weekends on campuses; provided with attractive dates; made guests of honor at swinging parties; flown around in private planes and given short holidays at hunting lodges.

When it was all over, Causey chose a scholarship from the University of Alabama whose coach is Paul "Bear" Bryant. Dudish picked George Tech. And Roger Mudd had a few words to say about the hazard of the athletic scholarship—"the high value placed on football above scholarship."

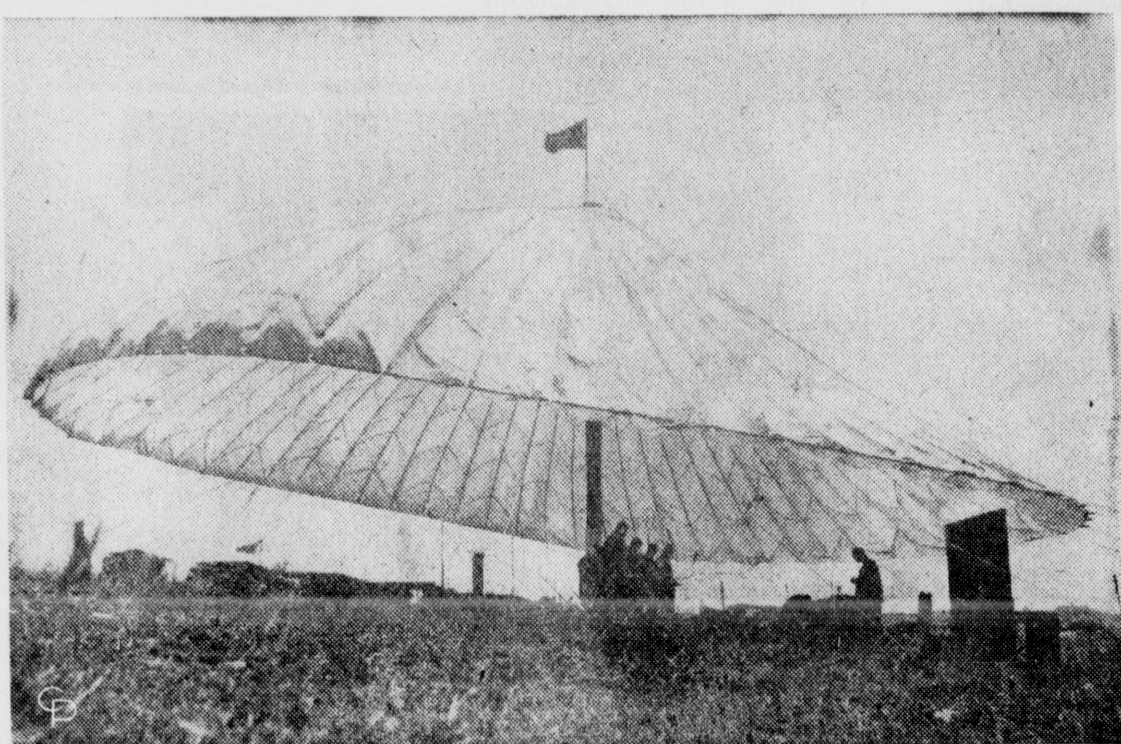

That may be true, but it did sound strange coming from a representative of a television network that competes financially with rival networks for the privilege of broadcasting football games.

After two successive nights watching the new version of the old "What's my Line?" now being broadcast on local stations around the country, it must be said that the venerable game show has lost some charm in transition.

A lot of the old game has remained the same—the general form, with the guests signing in by scribbling on a blackboard, the flowery introductions by and of the panel and moderator, the blindfolds for the mystery guest portion.

Most of the show's personnel is transient—three temporary panelists, and a new host, Arlene Francis, however, is still around. The guests' lines are about the same—a lady truck driver, a man who burns old money for the Federal Reserve and a woman who dives on horseback.

But something seems to be lacking. Maybe the format just wore out from old age.

Westfall Faces Key SVC Battle

Westfall High School's football team faces what could be the key battle in the Scioto Valley Conference this season.

The Mustangs travel to Unioto, defending champions of the conference.

"A win could get the momentum going for either team, and might help decide the championship," says Dave Katterhenrich, Mustang football coach.

Katterhenrich believes the league is better balanced this year than it was last. "The team that makes the fewest mistakes and has the fewest injuries will win it," he continued.

WESTFALL has looked good in preseason scrimmages and the opening game. The squad is comparatively healthy.

Columbus lost 13 of 21 regular season International League games to the Rochester Red Wings, but the Jets have taken a 1-0 lead in their best-of-five semifinal playoff series.

While the Jets were bombing the Red Wings 8-3 Tuesday night, the Jacksonville Mets were upending the pennant-winning Toledo Mud Hens 5-4 for a 1-0 lead in their best-of-five playoff.

Dave Roberts, the league's winningest pitcher with an 18-5 record, checked Rochester on eight hits and shut the Red Wings out for six innings. Catcher Manny Sanguillen drove in five runs with a homer and two singles.

Jacksonville got just two earned runs off Toledo pitcher Mike Marshall but beat the Hens with two runs in the ninth on Bob Heise's run-scoring double and a throwing error by Toledo catcher Arlo Brunsberg, who tried to head off Heise going to third after his hit.

Dave Campbell drove in three Toledo runs with a double and a homer.

Team No. 7 Keeps Lead In PCC Men's League Play

Team No. 7 maintained its lead over the field in Pickaway County Club Men's League play Tuesday, scoring 20½ points.

Tim Dickinson substituted for Bob Moon, second man on team No. 7. Other team members are Tom McGuire, Jasper Hedges, Wink Wellington, Ron Berlin, Bob Dahl, Larry Priest and Merv Odenbaugh.

Second is team No. 6 with 66½ points. Team No. 2 is third with 61½ points.

Steve Helwagen, Tom McGuire and Bob MacFadden tied for low gross honors with 37s. Wayne Evans and Frank Estes had 31s for low net scores.

The annual Roundup is Saturday and tee times are going fast, according to club pro Terry Ditts. Reserve times must be made by Thursday.

St. Louis Tries Out VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — The British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League said Tuesday they will give a five-day tryout to offensive tackle Mike St. Louis, recently released by Washington of the National Football League.

Furniss, Parsons and Gene Carfrey each gained over 100 yards in the opening victory over Fairfield School for boys.

Unioto has a 30-plus game winning streak going and has three times won the Scioto Valley Conference. The only blemish on their football record since the sport attained varsity status at the Ross County school is a tie with Piketon.

Returning to guide the team this year is Dave Juenger, a fine four-letter athlete for the Shermans. Juenger starred last year in football, basketball, track and baseball.

Followers of the Shermans are tabbing him as an All-State quarterback. Other players Katterhenrich feels the Mustangs will have to stop Friday are end Mike Hoffner, who has the moves and the hands to break open any game; fullback John Woodfork and halfback John Davis who provide raw running power for the Shermans.

The Shermans handled Madison South easily in the opening game last Friday, but so did Westfall in a preseason scrimmage.

McLain Wins 29th Game As Tigers Beat Angels, 7-2

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Denny McLain's 29th triumph in 1968 probably will be remembered as something less than a pitching masterpiece. But his stickwork never has been sharper.

The Detroit fireballer climbed within a single step of becoming baseball's first 30-game winner in 34 years when he hurled the American League leaders to a 7-2 victory over California Tuesday night.

McLain, 29-5, struck out 12 Angels. But he had to struggle to escape two tight jams and was tagged for nine hits in all, including a pair of sixth inning homers.

His performance with a bat in his hands was something else. The husky right-hander, batting .133 going into the game, banged out two singles and a triple in four trips to the plate.

His fourth inning single drove in two runs in a decisive four-run flurry.

"It's the first time I ever had three hits in a game," he said, "and I was all confused, running the bases."

While McLain boosted Detroit's league lead over Baltimore to 8½ games ... with 15 to play ... the New York Yankees continued their late surge with a 2-1, 5-0 doubleheader sweep over Chicago, Oakland trimmed Boston 5-3 and Cleveland beat Minnesota 6-2. Washington and Baltimore were rained out.

The Tigers staked McLain to a 6-0 lead before he faltered momentarily in the middle innings.

The Angels loaded the bases with one out in the fourth, but McLain got Tom Satriano on a pop up and fanned Bobby Knoop.

Ed Kirkpatrick, Vic Davalillo and Jay Johnstone stroked fifth inning singles but Detroit right fielder Jim Northrup nailed the synthetic turf Tennessee will unveil for the first time at Knoxville.

Nebraska over Wyoming: The Huskers are tall, starting with 6-foot-7 quarterback Frank Patrick, and tough (they led the nation in defense last year). The starting backfield on Wyoming's Sugar Bowl team is gone ... and so is All-American kicking specialist Jerry DePoyster.

The Cowboys will win often anyway ... but not at Lincoln. Wake Forest over North Carolina State: Upset No. 1! N.C. State's Liberty Bowl champs return most of their starters.

Wake Forest had to win its last four for a 4-6 finish and Coach Bill Tate modestly describes his team as "a bunch of boys who are fun to watch."

But the hunch here is that Fred Summers, Wake's slick quarterback, will give the white-shod Wolfpack defensive whales an eyeful of gloom ... and a hotfoot ... as the Deacons dedicate their brand new stadium with an Atlantic Coast Conference coup.

Iowa State over Buffalo: Last year's Big Eight have-nots are picked to defend the conference honor against the upstarts from the East and give new Coach Johnny Majors a winning send-off. Willie Muldrew's excellence at middle guard should be the difference in a tight struggle.

Utah State over New Mexico State: Take the Aggies in this one and you can't miss; both teams answer to the same nickname. We'll hope for the home-standing Utahs to reverse last year's 10-9 setback behind John Pappas' passing and the tackle play of 255-pound Phil Olsen, little brother of Los Angeles Rams' star Merlin, and 260-pound junior college transfer Mick Workman.

Also, Western Michigan over Arkansas State.

Saturday Night
Houston over Tulane: Houston's Paul Gipson, who rambled for 1,100 yards to spark the nation's No. 1 offensive machine in 1967, has shifted from fullback to halfback and added ballet lessons to his training schedule. If he doesn't tiptoe through Tulane, it's a good bet that new league start.

Williams had the Mets holding their ears as he blasted homers in the first, sixth and seventh innings, giving him 29 this season.

His six runs batted in also gave him the league lead. Teammate Ernie Banks added his 31st homer as Bill Hands, 16-9, coasted with an eight-hitter.

South Central Ohio League football teams hope to improve this week on the disastrous opening night of football that saw five of the six league schools on the losing end of scores.

This week Hillsboro travels to Blanchester, Greenfield McClain hosts Jackson, Washington C. H. is on the road at Chillicothe. Wilmington's Alumni Field will be the scene of a battle between The Hurricane and Cincinnati Withrow, Miami Trace looks for its initial win at Pleasant View and Circleville tangles with cross-county rival Teays Valley.

Last week, Washington's win over Class A school Clinton-Massie by a 33-12 score was the lone victory. Hillsboro, after trailing 20-0 at halftime in a game with Lebanon, held the host team scoreless in the second half and notched a TD for a 22-6 loss.

Wilmington surprised everybody by leading Hamilton Taft, 14-0 at halftime, but could not contain Taft in the second half when the winners scored two touchdowns and converted the two extra points both times for a 16-14 final score.

GREENFIELD McClain, a near unanimous pre-season choice as the team most likely to win the league, was blanked 32-0 by London.

Miami Trace was defeated by Northeastern, 26-14, and also lost one of their strong two way players, honorary co-captain John Ely with a chipped bone in his wrist.

Pigskin Prognosticator Likes Tennessee Over Georgia

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The time has come for the everyday housewife to put her dreams away for another day ... and start trying to hold the line against Saturday's heroes of the homescreen.

College Football 1968 is upon us, bearing promise of unprecedented weekend delights for armchair quarterbacks from Lafayette, Ind., to Los Angeles ... and headaches for the little women.

Would you mind sharing those aspirin tablets with an itinerant pigskin picker, lady?

The opening kickoff is a week away for most major college teams. But a handful will be taking the plunge Saturday ... along with this fumble-leery crystal ball-gazer.

The nationally-televised clash between Tennessee's Southeastern Conference champs and Georgia's toothy Bulldogs tops a six-game afternoon card. High-powered Houston entertains the Green Wave of Tulane in the Astro dome in one of 10 arclight openers.

We'll put our perfect 1968 record on the line with the following selections:

Saturday Afternoon
Tennessee over Georgia: This collision of Dixie dandies was moved up one week to accommodate the television fans ... and it promises to be a typical SEC free-for-all.

The Vols graduated All-American center Bob Johnson, guard John Boynton and backfield stars Dewey Warren and Charley Fulton, so Coach Dave Dick-ey will rely heavily on his combative defensive troops. They should carry the day against the visiting Bulldogs, who have been barking unhappily about the synthetic turf Tennessee will unveil for the first time at Knoxville.

Nebraska over Wyoming: The Huskers are tall, starting with 6-foot-7 quarterback Frank Patrick, and tough (they led the nation in defense last year). The starting backfield on Wyoming's Sugar Bowl team is gone ... and so is All-American kicking specialist Jerry DePoyster.

The Cowboys will win often anyway ... but not at Lincoln.

Wake Forest over North Carolina State: Upset No. 1! N.C. State's Liberty Bowl champs return most of their starters.

Wake Forest had to win its last four for a 4-6 finish and Coach Bill Tate modestly describes his team as "a bunch of boys who are fun to watch."

But the hunch here is that Fred Summers, Wake's slick quarterback, will give the white-shod Wolfpack defensive whales an eyeful of gloom ... and a hotfoot ... as the Deacons dedicate their brand new stadium with an Atlantic Coast Conference coup.

Iowa State over Buffalo: Last year's Big Eight have-nots are picked to defend the conference honor against the upstarts from the East and give new Coach Johnny Majors a winning send-off. Willie Muldrew's excellence at middle guard should be the difference in a tight struggle.

Utah State over New Mexico State: Take the Aggies in this one and you can't miss; both hit another flat note in their march to the National League pennant as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat them 3-0 for the second night in a row.

Second-place San Francisco, still nursing mini-hopes of pulling a major miracle, trimmed the Cardinals' lead to 10½ games by beating Atlanta 4-2.

The Chicago Cubs, behind Billy Williams' three home runs, blasted the New York Mets 8-1 in an afternoon contest, and Philadelphia was rained out at Pittsburgh in the other scheduled contest.

Wilson had not faced the Reds since he equalled the nine-inning strike out mark set by Bob Feller and tied twice by Sandy Koufax.

He had a little trouble getting in tune, giving up John Bench's 15th homer in the second, and after Jose Herrera's two-run double in the fifth put him ahead 3-1, he gave up another run, and had only seven strike outs in six innings. He also needed a strong throw from left fielder Bob Aspromonte in the sixth to catch Vada Pinson at the plate.

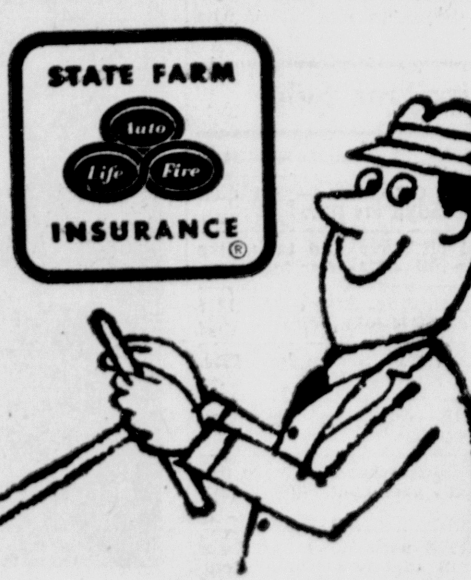

Then he started coming in loud and clear. He fanned two in the seventh and struck out the side in the eighth and ninth to contention for third.

The Athletics kept their first division hopes alive by cuffing Boston's Gary Bell for four runs in the first inning—two of them on Dick Green's double—and then staving off the Red Sox' late comeback.

Winner Lew Krausse allowed five hits until the ninth, when the Sox scored twice and drove him from the mound. Jack Akers protected the edge by getting the last two outs.

Tony Horton knocked in a pair of Cleveland runs with a homer and triple, then bounced into a triple play—the seventh in the majors this year—as the Indians topped the Twins behind Stan Williams.

complete a six-hitter for his 13th victory against 14 losses.

The Astros relied more on their bats in the second game as Jim Wynn, Doug Rader and Norm Miller slammed solo homers, but it wasn't enough in a game delayed 47 minutes by rain. Alex Johnson won it for the Reds with a tie-breaking bases loaded, two-out single in the ninth after two walks and a hit batter by Steve Shea.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their sixth loss in seven games and kept the pennant clinching number at six—any combination of St. Louis victories or San Francisco losses totaling six would give the Cardinals the flag.

Bill Singer scattered nine hits and ignited a two-run burst in the third inning off Steve Carlton, 12-11, with a single to raise his record to 11-15.

San Francisco, still playing far in the background, beat the Braves on Willie McCovey's 33rd homer with two on in the third inning, against Al Santorini, making his first major league start.

Williams had the Mets holding their ears as he blasted homers in the first, sixth and seventh innings, giving him 29 this season.

His six runs batted in also gave him the league lead. Teammate Ernie Banks added his 31st homer as Bill Hands, 16-9, coasted with an eight-hitter.

Other picks: Dayton over Kent State; Texas-El Paso over California-Santa Barbara; West Texas State over Lamar Tech; East Carolina over Parsons; Morehead State over Marshall; Furman over Miss College.

Groza, Taylor, McDonald Bid Farewells To Gridiron

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
Professional football sang a sad September Song Tuesday for three of its all-time greats—Lou Groza, Jimmy Taylor and Tommy McDonald.

All three reached the end of the line as active players, leaving behind scores of (1) memories and (2) lines of type in the record books.

Groza, the 44-year-old pot-bellied placekicker who holds the pro football scoring record and was an outstanding tackle in his younger days, was removed from the Cleveland Browns' roster and hired as a coach.

Taylor, the smashing fullback whose decade of power running made him a legend with the mighty Green Bay Packers, retired after one season with the expansion New Orleans club and took a public relations job with the Saints.

The Atlanta Falcons released McDonald, the acrobatic 34-year-old flanker who caught 48 passes in an 11-year career, fourth best in National Football League history.

"I had said that I didn't want to be the one who would have to say this is the end of the line for Lou Groza," said Blanton Collier, Cleveland coach. "He still thinks that he can kick the football, and I do, too, but we have a fine young kicker in Don Cockroft and we want to examine his potential further. We felt that we could not put Cockroft on waivers and expect to keep him."

Groza was one of the players when the Browns were organized in 1946 as a member of the All-America Conference. He holds the NFL scoring record with 1,273 points and his career total is a whopping 1,532, including those in the AAC.

"Taylor's contributions to the first-year Saints will never be forgotten," said John W. Mecom Jr., owner of the team, who signed the bruising fullback after he played out his option with Green Bay.

"His magnificent efforts with a young, untested team of veterans and rookies were matched only by the leadership and balance he gave the Saints when it was needed the most."

Taylor, who will be 33 later this month, led the Saints in rushing last season with 390, a far cry from the 1960-64 glory years when he became the only man ever to put together five straight 1,000 yards-plus rushing campaigns.

Taylor scored 19 touchdowns in 1962, more than any other back ever scored from scrimmage. In title games no man has gained as many yards rushing or as much rushing-pass Taylor.

McDonald played with Philadelphia, Dallas and Los Angeles before joining the expansion Falcons last fall. His 488 career receptions, good for 8,297 yards, put him in a fourth-place tie with the legendary Don Hutson.

While the three greats were coming to the end of the line, the New York Giants were going the opposite way. They received word from placekicker Pete Gogolak, who is in the Army, that he would return from Germany today and be available when the season opens Sunday. Gogolak played last year on a series of weekend passes. He is scheduled to be discharged in January.

N.Y. Teachers End Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — Public school teachers have voted overwhelmingly to accept a settlement in their two-day strike over job security issues and begin fall term classes for 1.1-million pupils today.

A final tally of the vote showed 5,515 in favor and 218 opposed to the agreement worked out Tuesday between the AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers and the Board of Education.

Union President Albert Shanker had predicted a favorable vote telling a cheering UFT delegate assembly "We have won on every basic issue and shown that we are the strongest organization in this fight."

The precipitating factor in the crisis, which delayed the fall term opening for two days, was the refusal of a locally governed experimental school district in Brooklyn to reinstate 10 white teachers it had dismissed.

Underlying the specific dispute was the union's fear that teachers would not be given adequate job security in the new citywide decentralization plan which is to take effect shortly.

The settlement provided that the 10 teachers could return to their former schools in the predominantly Negro-Puerto Rican Ocean Hill-Brownsville district if they desired. Another 200 teachers who walked out in support of the 10 may also return.

On the larger citywide issue, the union won a three-member arbitration board to which any school employee who is dismissed or disciplined by a local board may appeal.

Cops Fired For Shooting At Building

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Two white policemen charged with shooting up a Black Panther store-front headquarters were fired Tuesday by City Manager Jerome Keithley.

Keithley acted after Police Chief Charles Gain signed complaints against Richard V. Williams, 28, and Robert W. Farrell, 26, both of whom have been members of the force since 1965.

Bullets from a squad car had riddled the black militants' empty headquarters early Tuesday morning.

The patrolmen, jailed and then released on $3,000 bail each, were ordered to appear before Municipal Court Judge Martin Pulich today for arraignment on felony assault charges. Chief Gain said the men were on duty, in uniform and had been drinking.

The Panther headquarters is in the same west Oakland area where a white policeman was killed, another wounded, and Black Panther leader Huey Newton was shot and arrested last Oct. 28.

His trial, at which the prosecutor asked for a first-degree murder conviction, ended last Sunday night with a verdict of voluntary manslaughter. He was acquitted of trying to murder the second officer.

High Court Gives Boost To Wallace

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Third party candidate George C. Wallace's attempt to get on the November election ballot in all 50 states has received a boost from the U.S. Supreme Court.

The court has agreed to hear an appeal of a three-judge federal court ruling which denied Wallace a place on the Ohio ballot. Justice Potter Stewart said Tuesday the appeal will be heard on Oct. 7, the first day of the new session.

He also ordered Ohio election officials to program voting machines and prepare ballots to include Wallace's name in case the court rules in favor of the former Alabama governor.

Wallace headquarters says he has complied with ballot requirements in all states but Ohio and New Hampshire. A petition drive is under way in New Hampshire.

Wallace is expected to announce the site and date of a national convention of his American Independent party today in New Orleans, La., where he addresses the 50th annual convention of the American Legion.

The speech kicks off a 14-state barnstorming tour for the former Alabama governor who has been resting and recuperating from a cold for more than a week.

Ohio Water Pollution Board Continues Building Freezes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad at Walbridge and the Rumpke Dump in Hamilton County have been ordered to show cause why they should not be penalized because of pollution problems.

The action was taken Tuesday by the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board, which also imposed construction freezes in the communities of East Canton, Stark County; Bloomville, Seneca County; and Pandora, Putnam County.

The railroad has an oil waste disposal problem at Walbridge and drainoff from the dump, located in Colerain Township, reportedly is polluting the Miami River.

If both show progress in eliminating the problems, they can be granted relief by the board while pollution control work is being carried out.

The construction freezes were imposed until the three areas involved can show progress on plans to improve waste disposal.

The board also continued construction freezes for Greenfield, Highland County; a portion of North Royalton, Cuyahoga County; and Saybrook Township, Ashtabula County.

Columbia U Students Plan Fall Strategy

NEW YORK (AP) — About 200 students and others, led by Mark Rudd, the sparkplug behind last spring's Columbia University campus disorders, held a no-reporters-allowed meeting at the school Tuesday night to map "fall strategy."

Rudd, Columbia chapter chairman of the leftist-leaning Students for a Democratic Society, was chairman of the meeting, and told reporters no one would answer questions afterward.

Two reporters were later asked to leave an outside hallway as they waited for the meeting to end.

A spokesman for the Columbia Strike Steering Committee, which led a classroom boycott at the Ivy League school during the April-May disorders, said the meeting was to map "fall strategy" and "reformulate" the group's demands. The Columbia chapter of SDS reportedly dominates the strike committee.

3 Indicted In Done Case

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Three men described as possible connections to a nationwide drug operation were indicted Tuesday on various drug charges by Mahoning County grand jurors.

They were George Keefer, 40, of nearby Austintown; Robert Hoechstetter, 22, and Daryl Grady, both of Youngstown.

Keefer was indicted for possession of narcotics and sale of hallucinogenic drugs. He has been free on $5,000 bond since his arrest last January.

Hoechstetter was indicted for possession of narcotics with intent to sell and illegal sale of narcotics. He was arrested in July and has been free on $7,500 bond.

Grady was indicted on two counts of illegal sales. Authorities said they had been unable to trace Grady's whereabouts.

County Prosecutor Frank Anacott Jr. said the three men were possible connections to a nationwide drug operation involving hallucinogenic drugs.

Pick Candidates In 9 Primaries

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arizona Democrats have selected Barry Goldwater's Senate race opponent and veteran Republican Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont is all but re-elected after nine state primaries that heavily favored incumbents.

Goldwater's November opponent is Roy Elson, longtime aide to Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., who is retiring after 56 years in Congress.

Elson beat two Democratic rivals Tuesday; Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential nominee, was unopposed.

Aiken, dean of Senate Republicans and a Vietnam policy critic, won not only the GOP nomination in Vermont to succeed himself, but the Democratic nomination as well on write-in votes.

In Wisconsin, Atty. Gen. Bronson C. La Follette of the politically famous family easily won the Democratic gubernatorial nomination to face incumbent GOP Gov. Warren P. Knowles in November.

The other primaries were in Colorado, Minnesota, Utah, Maryland, Rhode Island and New Hampshire.

Two former Wisconsin Democratic congressmen who were ousted by Republicans in 1966 won nominations for rematches. Lynn E. Stalbaum won a comeback try against incumbent Rep. Henry C. Schadeberg and John Race won one against incumbent Rep. William Steiger.

All 10 Wisconsin congressmen, and Sen. Gaylord Nelson who was unopposed won renominations.

In the Arizona gubernatorial race, former governor Sam Goddard won a three-way Democratic race and now faces incumbent Republican Gov. Jack R. Williams, who was unopposed.

In the Vermont gubernatorial race, Deane C. Davis won the Republican nomination to oppose Democratic Lt. Gov. John J. Daley.

Former Colorado Gov. Steve McNichols, in a political comeback, won the Democratic nomination to challenge incumbent Republican Sen. Peter R. Dominick, who was unopposed.

All eight Minnesota U.S. representatives came through their renomination bids unscathed. Only Reps. Donald M. Fraser and John A. Blatnik had primary opposition.

Utah Atty. Gen. Phil Hansen and state Development Director In Maryland, Rep. Charles Milton Wellenmann traded leads in a race undecided as vote counting continued today for the Democratic nomination to oppose incumbent GOP Sen. Wallace F. Bennett.

Cleveland Man Shot To Death

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Clifford W. Wendel was shot to death early today at East 123rd Street and Superior Avenue while riding in a car with three other men.

Wendel, 33, of Cleveland was hit by one of three shots fired at the car as it slowed for a red light. No one else was injured.

In Maryland, Rep. Charles McC. Mathias breezed to the Republican nomination to oppose incumbent Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, also an easy winner.

The other seven of Maryland's U.S. representatives unofficially won renomination but Democratic Rep. George H. Fallon's victory was a photo-finish with a margin of less than 1,000 votes.

Rhode Island Democratic Rep. Fernand St. Germain won renomination and now faces Republican challenger Lincoln Almond, a town administrator.

In New Hampshire, incumbent Republican Sen. Norris Cotton crushed an opponent and now takes on Democratic Gov. John W. King, House Speaker Walter R. Peterson won the GOP gubernatorial nomination; the Democrats picked Emile R. Brassiere, a county attorney. David C. Hoeh, involved in a row with police at the Democratic National Convention over use of a credential-checking machine, won a spot against incumbent GOP Rep. James Cleveland. Republican Rep. Louis C. Wymann also won renomination.

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Legislation is being prepared that would guarantee job training to every Ohioan, Gov. James A. Rhodes said Tuesday.

Rhodes, speaking at Xenia High School, said the first target in the program will be the 90,000 young people a year who will either drop out of high school or will be graduated without a job skill.
